"THE ISLAND OF DESIRE"

The photoplay to be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight is one of the wonderful Fox stories, with love and adventure intermingled. The tale is of the South Seas, and jungle hurricanes, volcanic eruptions and terrific earthquakes all combine with splendid acting to make one of the most thrilling photoplays yet produced.

It is of two white men and a Chinaman, who set out to search for one particular coral island in the southern seas, where there are lots of pink pearls. They at last find the island all right, and on it only a girl, who had been shipwrecked there many years ago, with her father, who had since mysteriously disappeared. She has a large bag of pearls which her father had brought up from the ocean bed. These facts form the basis of the plot. How the sight of the pearls brings out certain of the company in their true colors, and the desperate attempts to obtain possession of them, of the fights, slimmings, earthquakes and thrilling adventures which have to be undergone, are they not all displayed in the picture? George Walsh is the star, who played "Hell-a-popping" in that play "Melting Millions" which was liked so well, and he is even better in this play. The war views in the Gazette show the tanks, and the women's battalions, together with views of the historic Irish convention.

Mrs. Young, Senr., of Saskatchewan, sister of Mrs. D. H. Morrison, together with Mr. and Mrs. Young, Jr., who have been visiting in the city for the past few days, left last night for southern points.

Miss Thelma Scammon, niece of Mr. Max Heilbronner, was among the passengers last evening sailing by the Prince Rupert for the south. Miss Scammon will join her parents at Great Falls, Montana.

NOTICE—Our stock of merchandise has been slightly damaged by water; therefore, it must be sold at a loss to clear. A new and complete selection of spring and summer goods, second to none, will arrive shortly.—HOFFMAN'S.

The train from the east was late in arriving last evening, not getting in till after one o'clock in the morning. She carried a large number of passengers from the prairies, going south for the winter. She also had a big lot of local passengers.
