CANADIANS BUILD A TOWN IN FRANCE

First Sawmill Post Behind the Lines Grows to Fair-sized Lumber City.

The following are extracts from articles by Mr. Roland Hill, who has been specially deputed to describe the work of the various Canadian units behind the lines.

Somewhere in France you will find an ever-growing Canadian village. Less than a year ago a company of the Canadian Forestry Corps were sent to the assistance of the French army, which was then badly in need of lumber for their camps and trenches. The men from overseas found splendid, almost virgin, forests on the mountain sides. When the timber famine came along the extreme east of the French lines and fortresses, like Belfort, were pleading as urgently for timber for dugouts and emplacements as the rest. There was no one to cut the rich mountain forests. Heavy timber meant the saving of Frenchmen's lives, and at the Allied Timber Conference the Canadians were asked to go to the assistance of the French. The Canadian lumberjacks and millmen came. They were completely outfitted with even the machinery and boilers from the far-away Dominion. From the start the scheme was a great success. The front was relieved and kept well supplied all through an almost Alpine winter. One company grew to three, then to seven and a dozen. The one little mill was augmented until there are now seven working night and day, and the few huts grew into a fair-sized town, with thousands of Canadian inhabitants.

The little station that before their advent seldom stopped a train to load a trunk is now a busy centre. The Canadians have designed and built their own sidings—lasted out of solid rock. The little bungalows of unpainted pine on the hillside that shelter the headquarters staffs are the envy of the French officer. "Speed" is the motto under which the foresters work. The output has sometimes reached the 300,000 feet mark per day. The French generals and their friends come out frequently to inspect the mills, and are lavish in their praises. The only little experimental mill has developed into one of the wonders of the war. Its product now goes all over France. One sees the empty trucks that have come heavy laden with supplies go back loaded with this Canadian-made lumber labelled for Paris, or Bordeaux, or Marseilles.

Anyone Can Have Whipped Cream

PACIFIC MILK is so rich in cream that it whips as easily as most of the fresh cream sold around the Province.

Mrs. McGary of New Westminster wrote in to say that she whips PACIFIC MILK regularly for a treat for the youngsters for breakfast. All she does is to set aside the amount she wants, in a cool place, for a time and then beats it with a sieve egg-beater. She puts this on toast and gives it to the children for breakfast.

You'll find it is good on cakes and

Keep Chickens

This is National Service

They will help Keep you

The cost of meat is the heavy item in the food bill.

Poultry and Eggs will help take the place of meat.

The food that goes to the garbage pail from the average table will provide one-third the feed for a flock of 8 to 10 hens.

Poultry will thrive where vegetables will not grow. The outlay is small. A few minutes a day is all the time required.

A small flock in your back yard will go far to keep you supplied with eggs, broilers and roasters.

THE DOMINION
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
OTTAWA

HONOURABLE MARTIN BURRELL, Minister.

How to go about it

BUY eggs for hatching or day-old chicks; borrow or buy a broody hen or an artificial brooder. A slatted packing-box will house the hen and chicks. Feed the chicks bread crumbs soaked in milk and squeezed dry. Feed five times a day, alternating with prepared chick feed, only as much as they will eat up clean. Remember that a hungry chick is a healthy chick.

CAUTION: Chicks must not be fed until at least 48 hours old, and then only sparingly.

If you can, start now with eggs or chicks; if not, arrange at once with the local poultry association for pullets in the fall.

CLEANSE THE LARGE INTESTINE

Present War Cry of Advanced Physicians.

Some of the leading surgeons of the world have gone so far recently as to remove part of the Large Intestine in cases so serious as that of Tuberculosis and restored the patient to perfect health by so doing.

The New York American has recently said:

"During Constipation the poisons in the Large Intestine often become so great as to form a serious menace to health and even to life. Through the walls of the intestine they enter the blood and consume the healthy blood cells, impoverishing the blood, and if this process is continued long enough an acute poisoning is produced."

It is impossible under our present-day mode of living for the Intestine to rid itself of all waste, and it is easily proven that there is an accumulation, no matter how regular we are.

Drugs, if taken regularly, form a habit, but Internal Bathing by means of the "J. B. L. Cascade" cleanses the Lower Intestine its entire length with pure warm water and makes it clean, sweet and healthy.

At the same time it regulates the system and makes one feel that every function is working smoothly and naturally—and, indeed, this is so.

This letter will convey a message of good cheer to many:

Welland, Ontario:

Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell,

163 College Street, Toronto, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—We heartily endorse the J. B. L. Cascade, as we find in our work that a loaded colon means a poisoned system, which, in turn, means ligamentous contraction of the spinal muscles, against which our work is directed.

Anything helping us in gaining relaxation we consider a boon, both to ourselves and our patients.

Most sincerely,

Drs. Hoxley and Garland.

Over five hundred thousand are now enthusiastic users of the "J. B. L. Cascade," which is now being shown and explained at Cyril H. Orme's Drug Store, cor. 3rd Avenue and 6th St., Prince Rupert.
