IN THE LETTER BOX

Prince Rupert, Jan. 23rd,
Editor Daily News,

Dear Sir:—In your issue of today, you carry an advertisement from the Rupert Table Supply Co. with a heading in prominent type, "Wake up, G. T. P., Pay your employees promptly," and strange to say, enclosed in a deep black border. Needless to state, it aroused the indignation of the G. T. P. shop employees, when they read this advertisement, and it was agreed by the said employees that it was only fit and proper that the true facts of the case should be presented to the public in your next issue.

With regard to the B. C. legislation, making it compulsory for all companies to pay their employees semi-monthly, the G. T. P. Co. have already paid some of their employees wages due them up to the 15th of this month, but through an oversight, which had to be corrected, the shop men have only received the pay due till Dec. 31, 1917, and needless to state, hope to receive their wages due to the 15th of this month by the next passenger train in.

But what we wish to emphasize is that the G. T. P. shop employees and carmen are a hundred per cent organized union men and have a schedule of rules with our company, which governs both company and employees, and we deeply resent any interference from any outside person or persons, not connected with the railroad, or with our affairs.

In conclusion we wish to state that the wages from the G. T. P. shop employees, from a business point of view, must be worth catering for, and in this case, it does not pay to advertise.

Signed on behalf of the G. T. P. employees.

Salvation Army.

"THE BLACK BUTTERFLY"

The photoplay to be screened at the Westholme Theatre this evening is one that is very much up to date. It tells of Russia before the revolution, of Paris before and during the war, and of the blood sacrifice of a woman with a crushed soul. The story is dramatic in its intensity. It is of love and cross loves, and always the background of battle looms up in the middle distance. Madame Petrova is the one artiste who could properly undertake the title role of this play. It is one that suits her peculiar personality down to the ground. And she certainly shines in her part. She is one of the greatest of emotional stars at present before the public, and wherever she is billed to appear, crowded houses are the rule. And Prince Rupert has been no exception hitherto.

In addition, there will be a Sidney Drew Comedy.

For Prince Rupert and district, we have secured the services of Mr. Martin Kroeger, F.R.H.S. Prince Rupert, B. C., phone Red 399. Consult him about your garden problems. British Columbia Nurseries, Ltd., Vancouver, B. C. tf.

Wake Up G. T. P., Pay Your Employees Promptly

We do not wish to criticize the local officials of the Grand Trunk, but it's high time that those officials at headquarters who are responsible for the delay in forwarding their employees' pay cheques were brought to task. This is a situation which affects not only the employees, but the citizens and merchants generally, and demands a remedy. The employees are dissatisfied, especially so when they are supposed to be protected against this inconvenience by B. C. Legislation, which was put into effect in October, 1917, which made it compulsory on all companies operating in B. C. to pay their employees semi-monthly. Why is not this law enforced? Possibly the G. T. P. is not the only offender. The proper remedy applied would remove the inefficiency caused by dissatisfaction.
