PEACE TERMS

The German Chancellor has spoken. He thinks that the concrete proposals of the allies regarding peace terms are unsatisfactory. That is unsatisfactory for Germany, or rather, what he has more in mind, they are unsatisfactory for Germany's present rulers. Count von Hertling apparently does not take into consideration that that is quite what the allies intended they should do. The peace terms which will be imposed upon Germany and her allies must be made so unsatisfactory to the Junkers that they will never think of breaking the peace again, just in case that unsatisfactoriness is made greater at some future date.

The thorough freedom of navigation during times of war as well as in times of peace is one of the German's naive demands. In order that this might be accomplished, all that has to be done is for Great Britain to relinquish her fortified naval stations, which girdle the globe. With no foreign bases of supply, the British fleet would be, except for numbers, more upon an equality with that of Germany. Chancellor von Hertling knows what he would like. He would doubtless also like to see the scrapping of the British and allied warships. Also the dismantlement of all coast defences, that the German race of pirates would be able to sail the seven seas unmolested, carrying fire and destruction wherever they went. All they want is the freedom to get doing what they want, whether it is in accord with their pledged word or not, or whether it is right, or whether the rights of other nations are respected.

Germany has shown just how much she is to be trusted. In tropical countries, when a man runs amuck, the police do not supply him with weapons. They rather put him where he can do no harm. And that is what has to be done with Germany and her present day rulers. The power for doing harm has to be taken from them. The will to do harm cannot be removed. That much must be left for the Germans themselves.

The chancellor's argument that the evacuation of Russian territory is a matter between the Germans and Russians, and concerns them only, will not hold good. It is as much a matter for the others of the allies as Belgium is for Russia. Russia joined in the conflict as an ally, and at various times afforded great assistance. The allies are allies still, and Russia in the weakness of her rebirth cannot be thrown over by her late friends.

The only satisfactory manner to deal with the Germans is as they would deal with other people. After the conflict with France in 1870, every time the French representatives disagreed, harsher terms were imposed, in the arriving at peace. Every time that the Germans find that the peace proposals of the allies are unsatisfactory, the only way to bring them to terms would be to give them a little bit more to think about.

THE FOOD QUESTION

The cable which the British food controller has sent to Mr. Hoover in Washington is significant. It calls for the increased production in the United States of 75,000,000 bushels more of wheat. The increase which will be demanded from Canada has not yet been given out, but doubtless increased supplies will be requested. This is one of the things that can be done in Canada. The acreage is here. The seed wheat is here, and with the proper mobilization of her resources of man power, the necessary labor for this increasing task could be made available. But this requires proper mobilization of the man power in the Dominion. The cutting out of non-essential businesses has been advocated as one means of releasing a great number for war work. Production of food and the things necessary for warfare are the prime essentials at this time, and the hands of every allied government may yet be forced in the direction

Appendicitis Operations Not Always Necessary

Internal Bathing Relieves the Cause
Your physician will tell you that Appendicitis is an inflamed condition of the little sack called the Appendix at the lower right-hand corner of the Colon or large intestine. By cleansing this Colon with purified warm water by the "J. B. L. Cascade" this sack is cleansed and the inflammation subsides. Hundreds of operations have been avoided by using the warm water cure for Appendicitis. Mr. Jas. McLaughlin, 91 Evanston street, Winnipeg, writes:—

"I had spent over fifty dollars with doctors trying to cure Appendicitis. Finally the doctor said I must go to the hospital at once for an operation. Your advertisement interested me. I bought a 'J. B. L. Cascade,' which relieved me at once, and am now completely cured. Never felt better in my life; all pain and soreness gone, and I eat and sleep like a boy. I am grateful to Dr. Tyrrell for this wonderful health-giving invention."

95 per cent. of all human ills are caused by accumulated waste in the Colon. Internal Bathing with the "J. B. L. Cascade" keeps this large intestine as free from all waste and as clean as nature demands it should be for perfect health. Ask Cyril H. Orme, Druggist, corner 3rd Ave. and 6th st., for booklet called "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient." It is free. He will also be pleased to show and explain the "J. B. L. Cascade" to you.

LOOT WAREHOUSE IS ESTABLISHED IN BERLIN

French Army Headquarters, Jan. 25.—Great opportunities are now being offered to the war profiteers of Berlin to acquire the spoils gathered by the German soldiers in France and Belgium from the houses and farms of the conquered civilians of those countries, who have been deported to various parts of Germany to work for their captors.

Official recognition has been given by the German Government to the practice of the German troops of laying hands on everything valuable belonging to the people of the invaded countries, for it has founded in Berlin a ware booty office to which all the articles thus acquired may be sent for sale. Here, connoisseurs may select from large quantities of ancient jewellery, clocks, furniture, etc.

Whether the price paid go to the German Government or to the officer or soldier who forwarded the consignment for disposal is not ascertainable here.

Advertisements are inserted in newspapers of neutral countries calling attention to the opportunities for obtaining bargains.
