THE FOOD CONTROLLER

There is one office more than another in this broad Dominion which at the present time, everyone desires to have properly administered and successfully, it is that of the food controller. Mr. H. B. Thomson, the British Columbian, who has been appointed thereto, in the place of Mr. Hanna, is a big man physically, and he has a chance to display his statue both mentally and intellectually in this new position. He has some job, and the sympathy of mostly everyone, even although in his official capacity he is the target for the shafts of the whole country.

Although Mr. Thomson has hitherto been politically a Conservative, his new position calls for radical action. If there be any virtue in the idea that partyism is dead at Ottawa, under the regime of the Union Government, Mr. Thomson has an opportunity of showing that even a Conservative can be radical when occasion demands. If the Conservatives would only stay radical now, what a fine place Canada would soon be.

CO-ORDINATION

It is said that the three most pressing problems before Canada at the present time are production, labor and transportation. There is really a fourth, which is distribution, but these four are only different phases of the one great thing which is Canada's duty to the world. That duty is to provide food for the other countries who have not sufficient, and in the meantime, also, the necessary war supplies for our allies. Production, labor, transportation and distribution are all interdependent upon one another. Anyone without the other three is useless, just as the three without the other one, are equally in vain. It resolves itself into a matter of national organization. And it is the duty of the government to do the organizing. This is the function of the executive of a nation as much as the organization of an industrial concern is the duty of the directorate, and not of the shareholders. National organization implies executive control, compulsion and unity of effort. Which will never be accomplished by clinging to artificial precedent and ancient economic idols, regardless of the conditions to be met.

Production of foodstuffs is the prime necessity, while the production of war material is a close second. The producing of other things is subsidiary. The market is there for everything in these lines that can be produced. There is sufficient labor also, were it directed into the proper channels. Transportation and distribution must be regarded first from the viewpoint of the public interest, instead of as it is at present, for private profit, primarily. The first duty of the government is to have the available labor organized as it has its armies; take command of the production of the necessities of the hour, and of the transportation and distributive agencies, in the interests of the consuming public, and of the Dominion and the Empire. Then Canada would be upon a proper war basis.

OTHER VARIETIES

An advertising campaign among the Canadian people is being advocated to popularize the varieties of fish, which by the thousands of tons annually are being wasted in the Pacific waters. By this means, a market for these hitherto despised kinds would be created, much to the benefit of the fishermen, the British Columbia ports, and the people of the Dominion at large. This is not a new thing for a government to undertake. It has been successfully done before on two particular occasions in the United States. Some years ago there were shoals and shoals of a kind of fish which was not used commercially appearing from time to time on the Atlantic coast of the United States. It was called the tile fish. It had a high food value. The government took the matter up and by means of judicious advertising through the eastern states, created such a demand that the fishermen

Appendicitis Operations Not Always Necessary

Internal Bathing Relieves the Cause
Your physician will tell you that Appendicitis is an inflamed condition of the little sack called the Appendix at the lower right-hand corner of the Colon or large intestine. By cleansing this Colon with purified warm water by the "J. B. L. Cascade" this sack is cleansed and the inflammation subsides. Hundreds of operations have been avoided by using the warm water cure for Appendicitis. Mr. Jas. McLaughlin, 91 Evanston street, Winnipeg, writes:—

"I had spent over fifty dollars with doctors trying to cure Appendicitis. Finally the doctor said I must go to the hospital at once for an operation. Your advertisement interested me. I bought a 'J. B. L. Cascade,' which relieved me at once, and am now completely cured. Never felt better in my life; all pain and soreness gone, and I eat and sleep like a boy. I am grateful to Dr. Tyrrell for this wonderful health-giving invention."

95 per cent. of all human ills are caused by accumulated waste in the Colon. Internal Bathing with the "J. B. L. Cascade" keeps this large intestine as free from all waste and as clean as nature demands it should be for perfect health. Ask Cyril H. Orme, Druggist, corner 3rd Ave. and 6th st., for booklet called "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient." It is free. He will also be pleased to show and explain the "J. B. L. Cascade" to you.

were glad to go after supplies of the hitherto wasted tilefish. The same has been done in the western states with what we know here as the black cod. The government of the United States gave the black cod a new name, because experts say that it is not a cod at all. They called it the sable fish, and the demand has increased vastly for this succulent flaky fish.

It is safe to say that if the same means were adopted through Western Canada regarding the black cod and red cod, sole and flounder, which abound in these adjacent waters the demand would spring up, just in the same manner. Abundant supplies are available, and when put on the market at the right price, would sell rapidly. Anyway, it would be worth trying.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Austrian censor is up to his job, judging by the amount of news which comes out from that distracted country. He is giving nothing away.

Finland gets its independence, then has a revolution of its own. Revolting or preparing to seems to be the chief occupation in Europe these days. The equilibrium of the Central American republics is stable, comparatively.

In Ontario at this last election the price of a vote varied from $2 to $50 for the votes of a man and his wife. The first election petition, on the ground of corruption, has been lodged. While the prices are always said to be higher in the West, the Western schedule of rates has not yet been published.
