NOTES FROM THE COUNCIL CHAMBER

of the meeting with the officials of the G. T. P. without the representatives of the people being notified that such a meeting was going to take place.

His worship said that the meeting had been quite an informal one, in which Mr. Hinton, general manager and vice-president of the G. T. P., merely wished to pay his respects to the mayor of this city. The meeting was only arranged that evening between 5 and 6 o'clock to take place at 9:30. It was not a secret meeting and there was nothing of a hole and corner nature about it, neither was it a conference on pre-arranged subjects. "I trust this explanation meets the situation," concluded his worship.

"It does and it don't," returned Ald. Casey. He thought that the Cow Bay matter should have been gone into fully, so that it might be known what was to be got for it. He was scathingly contemptuous of the manner in which Ald. McRae had managed to attend that meeting to make a presentable body of officials. "But whether we look presentable or not, we are representative," he continued, "whether good looking or clothed in fine linen, and I think on matters of this kind we all should have been consulted."

The motion for adjournment was then made.
