SORDID AND LITIGIOUS

Quebec, Feb. 8.—An action the like of which has probably never before been taken in civic courts has been instituted in the superior court. Mr. Alphonse Germain, of Quebec City, has entered action for $199 against Patrick Ryan, a railroad employee, whom Germain charges with insult and vile attacks on the French-Canadian race, in a public place, Billy Sharp's smoke shop on St. John street in this city. Mr. Germain explained that he took the action, not to get the money from Ryan, but to have him pay for his vile words against French-Canadians.
