FRENCH GIRL SUFFERS FOR HELPING SOLDIERS

Paris—A brave French girl named Mlle. Germaine Chaudrel, who lived with her family in a little village near Guise, in the Aisne Department, has just returned to France after two and a half years in captivity in German prisons.

The Paris Journal relates the very dramatic events in which she and her family took a glorious and leading part.

It was on October 20, 1914, that the region of Guise was invaded. M. Chaudrel and his family, composed of the girl Germaine, aged 15, and his son, aged 16, had remained in their little farm. On that morning, whilst in his fields, M. Chaudrel suddenly saw a British soldier come out from behind a hedge and approach him, followed a moment afterwards by ten others. These poor fellows had lost themselves, could not return to the French or British lines, and had been hiding for days in the country.

A neighbor, an old woman named Coby, took seven of the Tommies and the Chaudrel family the four others. They lived in cellars and everything went on all right up to December 24. They were about to celebrate Christmas in a very humble manner, when in the evening Mme. Coby's daughter noticed a group of German soldiers approaching the house.

Betrayed by a Spy.
The girl rushed into the house, and while the Germans were entering the front garden she let the seven Tommies out by a back door, and took them to a little wooded field. The Germans visited the house, but found no soldiers.

M. Chaudrel then decided to take these seven men to his place with the others. They lived there for two months more, the girl Germaine and her brother keeping watch night and day.

On February 22, 1915, the tragedy took place. The Germans heard through a spy of the presence of these eleven soldiers in the poor farmer's house. In the afternoon they surrounded the farm and house. Germaine rushed to the attic where her proteges were. She was caught on the stairs by a German armed with a revolver.

"Where are the English?" he asked.
"Look for them," replied the girl.

The Tommies knew the danger their little protectress was running. They opened the door and gave themselves up.

The house was burned, and a few days after the women were condemned by a court-martial; Mme. Chaudrel to four years in prison, her daughter to two and a half years, her son to three years, Mme. Coby to five years, and her daughter to one year.

In court the girl Germaine asked—"What about my father and the British soldiers?"
A Hun answered—"I regret to say that they were all shot a few days ago. They all died bravely."

The Rev. Father Rivet left last evening for a trip down the coast as far as Swanson Bay.

The Rev. W. W. Wright was among the passengers on last night's steamer for Victoria.

Mr. Jos. Filion, of the Acorn Sign Co., has been awarded the contract for kalsomining the city hall for the sum of $195.

The many friends of Mr. Harry Astoria were gathered on the wharf last night to see him off to take up his military duties.

Mrs. Geo. M. Hanson, wife of the American Consul, left last night on the "Prince Rupert" for San Francisco to be gone a month or six weeks.

The large number of punch boards which was to be seen at one of the Express offices yesterday, was significant of the activity of the police commission.
