Local News Notes

Mr. P. Haverhill of Victoria was among the passengers arriving on last night's train from the East.

Dr. L. Cairns of Terrace arrived in town last night from up river. Dr. Cairns will be leaving to join the colors some of these days.

Mr. R. J. McDonnell, proprietor of the northern hotel at Hazelton, was among the arrivals in town last evening from up river. Mr. McDonnell will spend a few days here on his way south on a vacation.

On account of the heavy weather, and in addition the heavy traffic arising between coastal points, the G. T. P. steamer Prince Rupert due this morning at 10.30 a.m. is not expected to get in until some time around four o'clock in the afternoon.

CHINAMEN FINED
IN POLICE COURT

This morning in the Police Court, before Magistrate Carss, Chin Gee, Ah Joe, Lee Kwong and Ma Lee were each fined $20 with the alternative of twenty days imprisonment for being found in an opium resort. This is the sequel to the raid which the Police made last Saturday night on premises near Fulton Street. Joe Chu was another of the accused, and he was fined $40 this being his second offence.

As far back as 1915, Joe Chu, whose name was then given to the Police Department as Sang, was apprehended and convicted here in Prince Rupert, and although his name has changed in the meantime his finger prints had not. On comparison being made, the classification of Joe Chu's finger prints were found to correspond with those of Sang, and his photograph taken these years ago, completed the identification. Constable Bailey of the Prince Rupert Police Force, is a finger print expert.

as far up river as Kishagass, some hundred miles north of Hazelton, in the Babine country. The interior Indians, while anxious for the salt water products, are famous for the manner in which they dry the native berries. They dry the blackberry, blueberry, and particularly the soplelli, which has great medicinal qualities. It is used as a tonic, being similar to quinine in flavor. These berries they press into cakes, and as they do not grow on every part of the coast, there is quite some demand throughout the year.

On the coast, the clams, herping spawn and seaweed and the oolichans are all disposed of before the salmon fishing starts in the summer, and the Indian is a busy man in the spring. He has realized now that in order to maintain himself and his succeeding generations he has got to work as hard and as continuously as the white man. Particularly at this time, when there is a threatened scarcity of food, he sees it to be his duty to live as much as possible on the produce of his own province.

CHAPLIN AGAIN AT
WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight Charlie Chaplin will be repeated at the Westholme theatre in "The Fireman." There will be a complete change in all other parts of the programme for this evening. There is a new five reel feature, in which Franklyn Farnum will appear, entitled "Anything Once." This play is an adaptation from the story called "The Maverick" which enjoyed such great popularity in recent years. There will also be an official gazette, showing the latest war views, which is one of the best yet received in the West.

Last evening, Charlie Chaplin fairly brought down the house in the "Fireman" and the building was crowded with his admirers. Notwithstanding the bad weather, the place was packed, and all enjoyed the little man. There is certainly something pleasant and attractive about Charlie Chaplin, which makes those who have seen him once, quite desirous of seeing him again.
