LONGSHOREMEN'S STRIKE IN VANCOUVER--HUN ATTACK REPULSED NEAR YPRES

STRONG ATTACK MADE BY HUNS NEAR YPRES. POSITIONS RE- GAINED BY COUNTER ATTACK

FIGHTING FIERCE WHILE IT LASTED AND ENEMY ATTACK
FINALLY REPULSED SUCCESSFULLY--GREAT AERIAL ACT-IVITY ON BOTH SIDES--TEN HUN PLANES
DOWN AND TEN DISABLED.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, March 11.—British troops repulsed a German attack east of Ypres on a front of nearly a mile on Friday evening. At only one point were the Germans able to penetrate the British lines, and counter attack drove them out again on Saturday night.

The official announcement says: East of Ypres yesterday evening, after considerable artillery preparation, through the day, and with a heavy bombardment covering their advance, the enemy attacked on nearly a mile front south of the Menin road, and north of Polderhoek Chateau. Despite the intense artillery fire, and the determination of their attack, they were repulsed everywhere, except in the neighborhood of Polderhoek. At that point, they succeeded in entering our advance posts on a front of a hundred yards. Severe fighting there on Saturday night resulted in the recapture of these positions.

Airmen Busy.
London, March 11.—There was no weather yesterday and great aerial activity was noticeable on both sides. The enemy machines persistently attacked our bombers and artillery spotting machines. There were many dramatic fights in the air between the opposing machines. Ten of the German machines were downed, and ten others disabled. Three of our machines are missing. The Huns had apparently made a great concentration of their flyers along the British lines, and many more of their machines were in the air at once than they had for months.

U.S. Patrol Fight
With the American Army in France, March 9.—An American patrol of five men three nights out-fought an enemy patrol of seven. They met in No Man's Land and the Americans opened fire. The Germans replied and after three minutes there was a sharp skirmish. The enemy released two dead and two wounded Bavarians who were taken prisoners. The American patrol returned to its own line without having received a scratch. They report that despite the fact that the Germans fired many shells to prepare the way for a full-scale attack, the American rifles, machine guns and automatic rifles stopping the Germans in their trenches.

CITY OF PARIS IS RAIDED BY GERMAN AEROPLANES

(Special to The Daily News.)
Paris, March 11.—German aviators raided the city of Paris last night. Early reports show that bombs were dropped with some loss of life and some property damage. Several squadrons of the enemy machines participated in this raid, converging upon the capital from different directions. They crossed the French lines successfully and reached the city one after the other. Large French air forces ascended simultaneously with the signal of "Alert," which was given at 8:30 p.m. While several houses were demolished, and some lives lost, the damage done was not excessive, the raiders being driven off before they had time to drop all their bombs in the inhabited areas.

RUSSIANS ALLEGED JAPANESE LANDED AT VLADIVOSTOK

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, March 11.—Details of an alleged landing of Japanese troops at Vladivostok in January are given in the Petrograd newspapers of January 10, which have just been received here. These newspapers state that the Japanese cruiser "Mikado" arrived on January 12, and was followed by two or more cruisers on January 14. Four thousand soldiers were landed, and a number of officers continue to arrive in Vladivostok daily.

Russians Will Co-operate.
Petrograd, March 11.—Prince Lvoff has informed the council of Soldiers and Workmen's delegates here that the ministers of the Revolutionaries in Russia have constituted a new Russian government in the Far East, and are awaiting the landing of Japanese troops in Vladivostok, in order to enter Siberian territory with them. The Soviet of Vladivostok is mobilizing all the forces it can raise for resistance, and is forming a Red Guard.

GERMANS PLANNING REVOLUTIONS IN ALLIED COUNTRIES

(Special to The Daily News.)
Washington, March 11.—Germany, with the aid of Lenin, the Bolshevik prime minister, is planning to bring about industrial revolution in the United States, Japan, France, Italy and Great Britain. The Germans have laid before the Bolshevik leaders a proposition whereby Germany's agents, sailing in Russian ships, are to be landed in Japan, the United States and the British Asiatic colonies to do the work of agitators.

A SELF MADE WIDOW AT THE WESTHOLME

After eloping to New York with a man she finds to be already married when she arrives there, Sylvia Smith is disconsolate. Wandering aimlessly round the city, she finds a man's coat and hat at the docks, and in the coat a letter asking the finder to inform his attorney of the owner's death. "If I can't be a wife, I can be a widow" she declares as a brilliant idea strikes the little girl from the country. So she takes her position of the widow of the millionaire. But the millionaire is not dead. He comes back, and to his amazement, finds his new widow in possession. Such is the introduction to a series of surprising events which are shown in this play tonight at the Westholme. Interesting from the first scene, this play continues its breathless way through five acts, and is one of the most striking. The things that happen to the widow who never was a wife is surprising, and well worth seeing. There is also a Pathe Gazette, as well as a fine comedy, which makes a first class programme for this evening.

PROHIBITION ACT WILL BE ENFORCED

(Special to The Daily News.)
Ottawa, March 11.—The government has decided to stand by its announcement of last December, and all inter-provincial traffic in intoxicating liquor will be prohibited after April 1. Petition after petition has been made to the government to have the date extended on account of varying circumstances, but these considerations have been overruled. There will also be an order dealing with the manufacture of liquor. It is understood that all manufacturers of alcoholic liquor will be prohibited from this business after April 30, except that which can be legally sold in any province.

BOLSHEVIKI GRAB SUPPLIES VALDIVOSTOK

Japanese and Chinese Troops are Moving into Russian Territory--Japan Will Act Quickly.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, March 9.—Japan and China are despatching troops into Asiatic Russia, the former into Siberia and the latter into Manchuria. Teintsin newspapers have announced, according to dispatch to The Evening News, received today. The dispatch added that General Tuan Chi Jui probably would be the Chinese supreme commander.

The Bolsheviks have seized a pier at Valdivostok containing munitions and other goods valued at one hundred rubles, according to advices received here today. The same dispatch declared the Bolsheviks threatened to requisition a foreign merchant ship for their use, and that allied warships in the harbor were prepared to land marines. None of the news yet has been confirmed.

Will Act Energetically.

Rome, March 9.—"The Government at Tokio will act energetically, but it is impossible to say in what way, it not being desired to have the enemy know anything of its plans," General Semba of the Japanese Army is quoted here as declaring in an interview regarding the situation in the Far East.

Japan's attitude, continued the General in the interview, depends upon the enemy's action—whether the Germans enter Petrograd, and should they do so, whether they will stop there, or invade, even without military action, the remainder of eastern Russia, under the pretext of re-establishing order and organizing supplies, and thus reach Siberia. Japan, the General declared, was ready for any eventuality.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, March 9.—The text of the official report regarding last night's air raid is as follows:

"The latest police reports state that 11 were killed and 46 injured in last night's airplane raid. It is feared that six bodies are still buried in the wreckage of houses. All of the casualties occurred in London."

"Last night's air raid appears to have been carried out by seven or eight enemy airplanes, of which two reached London. The first two raiders approached the Isle of Thanet at about 10:55 p.m. and proceeded up the Thames estuary. Both were turned back before reaching London."

"Meanwhile the third raider came across the Essex coast at 11:20 p.m. and steered west. At 11:45 p.m. it was reported over east London. A few minutes later it dropped bombs on the southwestern and northwestern districts. At 11:50 p.m. the fourth raider, which had also come in across Essex, dropped bombs on the north of London and then proceeded south across the City, dropping its remaining bombs on the northern district between 12.20 and 12.30 a.m. The remaining enemy machines, all of which came across the Essex coast, were turned back before they reached London."

"A certain amount of damage was caused to residential property in London. Several houses have been demolished."

Did Not Depend on Moonlight

The raid demonstrated that German aviators no longer depend upon moonlight. It was the first time the enemy had attempted a night raid over London where there was no moon. The stars were out, and there was little wind.

Northern Lights Aid Enemy

There was a remarkable display of northern lights last night and it is believed by many that this furnished conditions under which the air raiders could work more effectively than under a clear star lit sky. Watchers on the Kent coast said that just before they heard the raiders approaching the whole northern sky became illuminated in bands of red and white lights which shone onto the sea with far more powerful effect than a full moon. Then, as if to accentuate the brightness by contrast, the skies to the southward, toward France and the English Channel grew what seemed to be pitch dark. Another feature of the raid was the strong breeze which most persons believe hindered the operations of the hostile airplanes. Those who watched from high points the spectacle of the searchlights and gun flashes wondered how the enemy could face the wind and cold.
