A CIRCUS ROMANCE AT THE WESTHOLME

There is always indefinite charm to be found in tales of the circus, and of the people to be found there. The spell cast upon the youngsters by the bright lights, the spangles, tights and whip cracking to the accompaniment of galloping hoof beats within the circle, is one which takes many years to grow out of, if indeed one ever does. For a delightful photodrama, which will renew the pleasures of youth, tonight's show will fill the bill completely. With Muriel Ostriche as the star, she proves herself to be as lovable a circus performer as ever a kid lost his heart to, and the whole play is one which will please the most critical audience.

Then there is the two reel Fox Comedy. This two reel feature is one of the great attractions here and is proving to be one of the most popular items. And in addition, there is a Travelogue, displaying some of the beauty spots of this American continent, which everyone has not yet seen. Altogether, tonight's programme is a fine one.
