Easter Cards and novelties for March 29, at McRae Bros., Ltd. 74

The Rev. Father Rivet arrived back in the city last evening from up river.

Knights of Pythias will hold a Social Dance on April 8. Invitations only. tap2

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the G. W. V. A. are asked to bring their sewing and knitting this evening. 41

The train from the East arrived last evening a few minutes late. Several of the passengers complained of the heat here on arrival.

On account of the heavy traffic moving to coast points the arrival of the Venture has been delayed. She is not expected in until sometime tonight at the earliest.

Mrs. LeRoux and Mrs. Brown will give a whist drive and raffle on Wednesday evening, March 27, at eight o'clock at the residence of Mrs. LeRoux, Sixth Avenue, E., in aid of the Seal Cove Branch of the Red Cross Society.

There are few fishing boats arriving in port just now, and they report extremely stormy weather prevailing outside for the past week. The Volunteer is in with 3,000 lbs. halibut, Ruth 1,000 lbs; Alliance 1,000 lbs, and Lillian 2,000 lbs. These catches are away below the ordinary capacity of these vessels.

LUDENDORFF HAS GREAT OPTIMISM

Amsterdam, March 24.—Germany is now stronger than her enemies in men, material, air forces and in tanks as well, General Ludendorff declared in an interview in the Cologne Volks Zeitung. The general said the enemy was welcome to attack and would find Germany ready, and that if he was not inclined to make peace he would have to fight.

"Our front in the west is now much more favorable for us than it was last year," Gen. von Ludendorff told the interviewer.

"How different the situation was must be gauged from the fact that we had to restore calm in the east and defeat in the south. But now we are stronger than the enemy both as regards men, materials, aerial forces, tanks. Everything, in fact, of which he boasted is standing in readiness on our side in the greatest abundance. If the enemy wishes to attack, let him do so. If the enemy does not want peace, he will have to fight, and this fight will, of course, be the most tremendous of the whole war. With God's aid we will obtain a German peace."

AT THE WESTHOLME

"Playing Fair," the great play founded upon the story of "The Ironmaster," will be repeated at the Westholme theatre this evening. Although this was already shown last Friday evening, the demand for its second appearance has been imperative. There are many of the Westholme patrons who missed this great photoplay owing to the uncertainty if the conditions prevailing last Friday when the snowfall affected the lighting arrangements so much. However, the opportunity afforded by the absence of Mary Pickford this evening, is being seized. This play is certainly one that people will enjoy. It is an intense piece of drama throughout, and grips the attention from start to finish. Charlie Chaplin will also appear in "The Vagabond" and everyone who has seen Charlie once wants to see him again. In this sketch, he is ridiculous as ever, and brings one continuous laugh from the audience. The enjoyment which Charlie himself gets out of his antics constitutes not the least of the charms which he displays.

Mary Pickford was expected to appear this evening, but the steam or conveying her is behind time, and it is not expected that she will arrive in town in time. Some things are beyond the control of the Westholme management.

Old King Spear was a merry old dear,
And a very old dear was he!
He called for gump,
Till they brought him some,
Then he shouted "Hurrah for Wrig-ley!"

AN EGGLESS EASTER TO CONSERVE FOOD

Washington, March 23.—A movement to save some 60,000,000 eggs for food this year by county wide observance of an eggless Easter was launched here today by prominent women headed by Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Mrs. Newton, D. Baker, Mrs. Medill McCormick, and Mrs. P. H. Claxton. It was announced recently that the usual egg rolling on the White House grounds on Easter Monday would be abandoned.

The Dominion Income War Tax Its Meaning and Application.

THE Dominion Income War Tax Act, passed at the last session of Parliament is now in force and all those liable to taxation under the provisions of the Act must file the required returns for the year 1917, on or before 31st March, 1918.

The Act provides that there shall be assessed, levied, and paid upon the 1917 income of every person residing or ordinarily resident in Canada, a tax upon income exceeding $1500 in the case of unmarried persons and widows or widowers without dependent children, and upon income exceeding $3000 in the case of all other persons.

Corporations and joint stock companies carrying on business in Canada, no matter how created or organized, shall pay the normal tax upon income over $3000. The fiscal year of corporations and joint stock companies may be adopted if desired.

Your Immediate Obligation.—You are now required by law to fill out in triplicate, one or more of the five special forms enumerated below. Read the particulars about the forms provided, then note the form or forms that fit your case. Don't forget to make three copies. You keep one copy, and in the case of Forms T1 and T2, deliver two to the Inspector of Taxation for your district. In the case of Forms T3, T4 and T5, two copies must be filed with the Commissioner of Taxation at Ottawa.

Penalties.—Default in filing returns renders the person or persons liable on summary conviction to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each day during which the default continues. Any person making a false statement in any return or in any information required by the Minister of Finance shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars or to six months imprisonment, or to both fine and imprisonment.

FORMS TO BE FILLED IN AND FILED

Individuals.—Form T1 is for all individuals having the requisite income. Fill in pages 1, 2 and 3, make no marks on page 4.

In giving particulars of dividends received, state amount received from each company, listing Canadian and Foreign Companies separately.

Partnerships as such need not file returns, but the individuals forming the partnerships must.

Corporations and Joint Stock Companies must fill in Form T2, showing total income. Amount paid during the year to Patriotic and Canadian Red Cross Funds, and other approved war funds, should be shown under Exemptions and Deductions. A financial statement should also be attached. In giving particulars of dividends received, state amount received from each Company, listing Canadian and Foreign Companies separately.

Trustees, Executors, Administrators of Estates and Assignees use Form T3, to state particulars of the distribution of income from estates they are handling. A separate form is required for each estate and total incomes must be given as well as distribution thereof.

Employers. On Form T4 employers shall make a list of the names of employees and amounts paid to each in salaries, bonuses, commission, or other remuneration wherever the combined sum of such remuneration for the calendar year 1917 amounted to $1000 or more. This applies to all classes, regardless of number of such employees.

Corporations Listing Shareholders.—Corporations and Joint Stock Companies shall list on Form T5 Shareholders residing in Canada to whom Dividends were paid during the calendar year 1917, stating the amounts of dividends and bonuses paid to each.

Don't wait till the last minute. Get the necessary forms now, and make your information accurate and complete.

Forms may be obtained from the District Inspectors of Taxation and from the Postmasters at all leading centres.

Postage must be paid on all letters and documents forwarded by mail to Inspector of Taxation.
