GENERAL SMUTS TOO MUCH FOR DIPLOMAT

Paris, April 9.—General Smuts was, according to Le Matin, the "figure high in the counsel of the Entente Allies," referred to by Premier Clemenceau in his statement, denying the assertion of Count Czernin that the French prime minister had sought to open peace negotiations with Austria-Hungary. The representative of the dual monarchy who met General Smuts in Switzerland was Count Mensdorf-Pouilly-Dietrichstein, Austro-Hungarian ambassador at London when the war broke out.

Immediately upon being introduced to Count Mensdorf, says the newspaper in relating the interview, General Smuts, taking the initiative in the conversation, bluntly said:

"Is it true that you wish to make a separate peace?"

This direct question was too much for the trained diplomat, and the count began a long evasive reply.

"Yes, or no," retorted the British representative.

Obtaining no direct reply, General Smuts said:

"Then, goodnight."

The interview lasted barely three minutes. Vienna was shocked, Le Matin says, at the boorish manner of the old Transvaal warrior.

FRENCH PRESIDENT FULL OF CONFIDENCE

Paris, April 9.—Premier Clemenceau told the committee on foreign and military affairs of the chamber of deputies at a joint session yesterday that they could have confidence regarding the outcome of the great battle now in progress.

"We have an admirable army," he said, in summing up the situation after giving details to the committee. "Our officers and our men are equally brave. They are endowed with the best qualities of our race. They possess material means of great power. All this permits us to have confidence."

The premier's summary of the situation made an excellent impression on the deputies. After the meeting an important member of the military committee said: "The premier has will-power, audacity and energy. He has faith in his convictions, and is able to bring others to these convictions. After listening to him it is impossible not to have confidence."

The premier told the deputies that they would have every facility for observing the operations at the front.

One, two—it's good to chew.
Three, four—they all want more.
Five, six—it comes in sticks.
Seven, eight—the flavor's great.
Nine, ten—come again
—with Wrigley's!
