

There's Supreme Baking Satisfaction
Milled Into Every Sack

ROYAL STANDARD FLOUR

ALWAYS runs true to form. It's always true to its standard as a relatively BETTER FLOUR.
THE dependable character—the sterling quality of this flour has been developed through many years of milling experience, and the application of the most approved methods known to the art of flour-making. THERE has never been the slightest "let-down" or slackening in our efforts to maintain this quality—this clearly definable characteristic that goes to make "Royal Standard"—a BETTER FLOUR.
FOR those who are desirous of using a high-grade "substitute" flour, and there are many nowadays, the employment of will be found to meet every exacting requirement. By combining a judicious quantity of the rye with the wheat your loaves will contain the most pleasing elements of wholesomeness and nutrition. TRY THE RYE.

The fire department's report for last month was read at the Council meeting last evening. There were two alarms during the previous thirty days, and any fire loss had been prevented.

At the Police Court this morning there was one drunk, who was fined $10, and one other who had not registered under the requirements of the Military Service Act. The latter was remanded until tomorrow. Two men also came in on today's train from up river charged with the same offence.

Tenders for the printing of the city's financial report for the year 1917 were opened at the City Council last evening. McRae Bros. quoted $5.25 and $5.75 per page; The News Job quoted the same figures, while the Rauk Press quoted $5.10 per page. The tender was awarded to the lowest tenderer.

A. to continue their splendid work at the front does not close until Thursday of this week, those who were overlooked during Saturday's canvass are asked to leave their subscriptions with Mr. Doherty, treasurer, at the Royal Bank; Mr. C. All Splashed with yellow mud, up over the driving wheels of the engine, the train from the east, which was due here Sunday night, pulled into the depot this morning nearly at noon. There was a washout on the other side of the Rockies, which accounted for the delay. There were quite a number of passengers on board, who seemed quite relieved to reach their destination.

UNCLE SAM IN THE BAKERY BUSINESS

Buffalo, N. Y., May 6.—Uncle Sam went into the baking business here today to meet a situation created by a strike of 200 bakers in 20 shops. All wage demands had been granted by the master bakers, the strike being precipitated on the hours, the men demanding a reduction of 60 minutes a week and refusing to leave this question to arbitration. James B. Stafford, federal food administrator, commanded 3 of the largest bakeries, ordered them to discontinue all baking except bread, and instructed the bake shops where strikes are in force to get their supply of bread from the federal bakeries.

"The food crisis is grave and urgent, beyond possibility of exaggeration."—Sir Robert Dorden

City and Town Labor Must Save The Food Situation

THE heart of the food production problem is labor, and the heart of the labor problem is the city dweller. City people must produce food if Canada is to do her full duty in support of our soldiers and Allies.

Men who are needed on farms must come from the cities and towns—there is no other source. The Provincial Departments of Agriculture co-operating with the Canada Food Board, can place thousands of men on good farms in this Province. They are needed at once.

Those who remain at home must also Grow Food

A War Garden will not excuse the man whose rightful place this year is on a farm. But War Garden service is needed from those who can do no more.

Every pound of home-grown vegetables, produced on city land by city labor, will be a positive addition to the food supply. Home Garden and Vacant Lot cultivation will leave the farmers free to grow more food for export.

The vegetable garden offers an opportunity for service to men whose circumstances make it impossible for them to work on a farm, to women, to boys and girls—to city people generally.

Be a Food Producer This Year

If there is a garden or vacant lot movement in your community, associate yourself with it. If no organization exists, do what you can to interest your neighbours in the War Garden campaign. Write to your Provincial Department of Agriculture for pamphlets on gardening and additional information.
