A "WAR SECRET" SPOILED

Ninety-nine people out of every hundred have really believed that the Straits of Dover have been closed since the first days of the war by steel nets, making the passage of enemy submarines impossible. Sir Eric Geddes has robbed them of one more illusion, and admiration for the navy, which without such help has ensured the transport of many millions of men and many million pounds' worth of material without loss, will be the greater. But it is desolating to think back upon all the wonders that clustered, so to speak, about that famous net, now shown like them to be a vain imagining.—London Daily News.

POLISHING UP SIR JOSEPH

Mr. Edmond Bristol, M. P., has accepted the job of official polisher for Sir Joseph Flavelle. He assures parliament that Sir Joseph is a much-maligned patriot, rather inclined to philanthropy where the public interests are concerned, and cites cases to show that by lending the British government some expert advisers on a commission basis Sir Joseph saved the British taxpayers from a worse fate. So far he does not seem to have explained just how and how much Sir Joseph helped to win-the-war and sustain the staying power of the Empire by charging twenty-five cents per pound for salt water. The elucidation of that particular phase of Sir Joseph's self-sacrificing activities will naturally be awaited with some interest.—Edmonton Bulletin.

TOUGH ON HIS FRIENDS

The dispatch from Chilliwack to the morning paper, announcing the nomination of H. J. Barber as "Unionist" candidate against the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, contains the following on the speech of one of the promoters of the so-called Unionist convention:

"Mr. Cruickshank delivered an attack on the Government, charging it with extravagance, patronage and inattention to the returned soldier problem. He made reference to a report of the Vancouver Board of Trade on the financial situation in British Columbia, and said the expenditure had shown an unreasonable jump from the days of the late Hon. Mr. Tatlow at the time he was finance minister. The outlay here was twice as much per head of population as in most other provinces and four times as great as in some. The Government, he said, had one fixed reply to all representations as to requirements of the districts, which was that 'we have a depleted treasury and cannot undertake the simplest thing unless our revenue is increased.'"

Mr. Cruickshank is nothing if not thorough in his denunciation, and he is also something of a humorist, for he holds the present administration responsible for the financial policy of the province ever since Captain Tatlow resigned just nine years ago. Everybody knows, of course, that the conditions described by him were created by the party he is trying to help by supporting an alleged Unionist candidate in opposition to the Minister of Agriculture.

Incidentally, is it not time the word "Unionist" ceased to be used as a disguise for Bowserism in British Columbia? While it does not deceive anybody it may do harm to genuine Unionism which has nothing to do with provincial politics and which will die an early death if an attempt be made to inject it there under the discredited auspices of Bowserism.—Victoria Times.

"THE SPELL OF THE YUKON" AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Robert W. Service in his "Songs of a Sourdough" has possibly been responsible for portraying the life of the great Northland, where the gold is, and the snows and blizzards and the strong men, in the manner by which the reader can visualize to himself most plainly, that country. The play to be screened at the Westholme Theatre this evening is based upon one of his poems, and in the Spell of the Yukon, an opportunity will be afforded to the old timers here, who know what that country was, within the last twenty years, to exercise their critical faculties. This is a vivid drama of Alaskan life which will recall the days of the past to many of the people of Prince Rupert. It being a Metro picture ensues five acts of exquisite photoplay, and no one will regret seeing this play, with Edmund Breese as the star. There will also be a two-reel Fox comery which is really all comedy.

A Clergyman's Wife Wants Women to Know Advantages of Internal Bathing

If women could only see the thousands of letters Dr. Tyrrell has received from grateful women in all parts of the world, thanking him for his wonderful invention for Internal Bathing, they would discard the medicine bottle and look to the cause of their trouble. 95 per cent. of all human ills are due to accumulated waste in the Colon or Large Intestine. Warm water, properly used with the "J. B. L. Cascade," will relieve the cause of your troubles and perfect health will follow.

A Winnipeg clergyman writes: "My wife is naturally sensitive about having her name appear in public print, yet is anxious that others should know what the 'J. B. L. Cascade' has done for her. It has really given her a new lease of life. For years she had been doctoring for Constipation, which became worse every year. Since using the 'J. B. L. Cascade', first about 4 years ago, she has not been sick a day, and has become robust and strong again. Should any person wish this letter confirmed, you are at liberty to give my name in private."

The "J. B. L. Cascade" is shown and explained by Cyril H. Orme, Third Avenue, Prince Rupert, B.C.

The "J. B. L. Cascade" is an invention, perfected by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, and has done more during the past few years to restore health and lessen disease than all other means combined. Ask for booklet explaining all about Internal Bathing and what it has done for others." It is free.

Pour LUX on the troubled waters of the wash

MILLIONS of these little LUX wafers are working wonders every wash-day all over Canada. In color they are like cream—to the touch like silk. The fine, soft, creamy lather LUX makes, is splendid for woollens—it never shrinks or hardens them. In fact, all kinds of garments, woollens, silks, laces, linens, etc., dainty or otherwise, are really preserved by LUX. It leaves them luxuriously clean, but with the fabric absolutely free from matting and shrinkage.

SAMPLE FREE on application to Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto. Sold at all grocers, Remember: 1st. LUX is made in Canada. 2nd. It won't shrink woollens.
