There have been true stories of aeroplanes seen passing over the city, and truer stories of submarines seen outside the harbor since the year 1914. A tale, the veracity of which is undoubted, is brought to town by the crew of a fishing boat yesterday. This is that when coming here from the fishing banks, they passed a flock of geese on the wing going north. This flock measured a mile wide and took the boat three days to pass!

A merry gathering of the friends and acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Alexander paid them a surprise visit last evening. It was a birthday occasion, and the most was made of it. Mrs. Alexander proved a capable hostess in the unexpected circumstances and a very joyous evening was spent by all present. Among the self invited guests were Miss Jameson, Miss May Ryan, Miss Margaret Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Parker, Mr. and Mrs. H. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stillwell, Miss L. Astoria, Mr. W. Balagno, Mr. Chas. Balagno, Mr. Paul Aivazoff, Mr. H. Walford, Mr. L. Connant. The Westholme Orchestra provided music, and all went merry as a marriage bell. The mystery of the evening, however, was the disappearance of the ring from the birthday cake. Suspicions point to one of the party in particular, although nothing can be proved. Anyway the ring never showed up, and it is believed that it was swallowed. But who swallowed the ring?
