"THE MASKED RIDER" AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Excitement, romance, mystery, thrills are the chief features of the five act photoplay called "The Masked Rider," which is to be screened at the Westholme this evening. The story is a stirring one, and concerns a revenue officer's adventures in the wild haunts of a gang of moonshiners, such as may be expected to be discovered in some out of the way places up the Skeena or some of the other inlets along this coast, some of these days. The tale also concerns a beautiful mountain girl, who found a parson not all he seemed, and of the romance thereby befall. The two supreme screen stars, Harold Lockwood and May Allison, appear in this play, which will surely satisfy the most exacting taste. It's a Metro.
Then there is Billie Burke. She will be seen in further chapters of "Gloria's Romance," and those patrons of the Westholme Theatre who have followed this serial play will not want to miss these two reels.
