

TORTURED BY RHEUMATISM

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought Quick and Permanent Relief

MR. P. H. MCHUGH

103 Church Street, Montreal.

December 10th, 1917.

"I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists, took medicines, used lotions; but nothing did me good. Then, I began to use 'Fruit-a-tives'; and in 15 days, the pain was easier and the Rheumatism was better. Gradually, 'Fruit-a-tives' overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. Also, I had severe Ecema and Constipation, and 'Fruit-a-tives' relieved me of these complaints; and gave me a good appetite; and in every way restored me to health." P. H. MCHUGH.

SOVIET POWER IS ESTABLISHED IN RUSSIA FIRMLY

London, May 16.—A correspondent writing of conditions obtaining at present in Russia says that May Day was a notable celebration throughout Russia by the Soviets. The Soviet proclamation declared the day doubly important as it also marked the end of the six months of the Workmen's government in Russia, and the firm establishment of Soviet power.

The Moscow celebration centred about the Red Square, adjoining the Kremlin, where the victims of the October revolution are buried. Probably 100,000 working men and women of the various unions, bearing gigantic red banners, proclaiming international Socialism, and extolling the Soviet government, marched through the streets and passed in review before the members of the Central Government grouped about the graves of the revolutionists.

Thousands of sailors and soldiers, representing all services of the Red Military Establishment, participated in the parade and patrolled the streets. Perfect order was maintained.

Count von Mirbach, the German Ambassador, together with the Turkish Ambassador, watched the parade from an automobile near the reviewing stand near the Red Square, and later went to the drill grounds, where Leon Trotsky, the War Minister, reviewed the troops. Trotsky, accompanied by hundreds of workmen and several members of his staff, preceded the procession of troops to the reviewing point.

A notable number of banners carried in the parade emphasized the necessity for the strict discipline of Labor and for constructive Lenin.

Premier Lenin, with War Minister Trotsky and other members of the Government, witnessed the taking of the Red Army of the oath of allegiance to the Soviet Government at the conclusion of the review.
