Local News Notes

Don't you recall to mind today the language of the poet, "Oh, what is so rare as a day in June."

Miss Geraldine Phillips, who is in charge of the school at Port Simpson, spent the weekend in town.

The city council did not assemble in regular session last evening owing to the holiday. The regular meeting will be held this evening.

The holiday passed quietly yesterday. The barber shops and a good number of the merchants closed at noon to permit of part celebration in honor of the king.

Sergeant Bay who recently returned from the front, has for the present accepted a position with the Granby Consolidated and left for the latter place on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. John Currie have recently had a letter from their son John, who left here some time ago to join the aviation corps. At the time of writing he was well and was just experiencing new freedom after a quarantine for measles.

"By Heck," the spring is here and we all have the fever which generally goes with the season of the year. Our good friend, Mr. Arthur Little is branching out with a new addition to his business, and so will open up again down on the Grand Trunk wharf. Mr. Little spent the early portion of his stay in the city on the waterfront and when he moved it hardly seemed like the same place. It will recall olden times to see him again at the old stand.

Draperies and novelty curtains 20 per cent off at Tite's. 133

The Returned Soldiers' headquarters was last evening the scene of a quiet little social given by a few of the men to their friends.

Mr. John Currie who has for some time been busy over on the Queen Charlotte Islands, has returned to the city for a few days. Mr. Currie reports that there is every sign of business on the Islands at the present time.

Among the arrivals in the city from the east on Sunday's train were Mr. and Mrs. Welch and family of Vancouver. Mr. and Mrs. Welch have been in the east for the winter and are returning to their home in Vancouver. They will sail by the G. T. P. boat Wednesday.

Well here is romance and all that goes to make a popular story. For is it not so when a happy couple start off on a long journey to Vancouver in a gas boat, braving all kinds of weather, and then to turn around and come back in the same staunch little craft? That is just what Dave Ross and his bride did, and they are receiving all kinds of congratulations on the success of their trip. There were storms and there were tides and rocks and all the other things that go to make this story interesting, but still the craft sailed on with its full complement of Captain, Mate, Cook and Engineer. And yet there were two—just two.

For the next ten days, big reductions on iron beds, springs, and mattresses at G. D. Tite's.
