FRIENDS THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Conquered Dyspepsia and Restored His Health.

MR. ROBERT NEWTON.

Little Bras d'Or, C. B.

"I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight — going from 185 pounds to 146 pounds — that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'.

In a week, there was improvement. The constipation was corrected ; and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON.

THE BETTER HAND

A good story is told of General Foch and his supreme confidence in the ultimate success of the Allies. At the close of one of those January conferences in France which led to the formation of the Versailles Council Mr. Lloyd George and General Foch found themselves alone in the room. "Tell me," said the Premier to the General, "in this game between you and Ludendorff whose cards would you rather have?" General Foch reflected a moment. "I would rather have my own hand," he replied. That ended the conversation for the time being. Many weeks afterwards came the great onslaught of March 21st. After that attack had exhausted its initial force by sweeping back the Franco-British line to the proximity of Amiens, General Foch sent to the Premier a reminder of his preference. To a French officer who was about to visit this country the General said:—"If you see Mr. Lloyd George tell him I would still rather have my own hand." The message, according to the story, was duly delivered—and appreciated.

SHELL STRIKES CHURCH

Paris:—While the British were observing Cardinal Hartmann's request not to bomb Cologne on the Feast of Corpus Christi, German long range guns steadily bombarded this city. One shell struck a church, killing or wounding eighteen persons. The official statement making this announcement adds:

"This fact should be compared with Cardinal Hartmann's request to the British. It is merely another example of German bad faith, for the least that could have been expected was that Germany would have exerted the same forbearance toward Paris that was asked for Cologne."

MUST SUPPLY WHEAT

Ottawa, June 6.—Canada and the United States must continue to supply to Great Britain and European allies, the bulk of the wheat supplies, which are essential to victory. This is made clear in a cable received by the Canada Food Board from the British ministry of foods. It is pointed out that the increased cereal production in the United Kingdom, even if the most optimistic predictions were fulfilled, would not be appreciable in proportion to the amounts required from this continent.

This cable also states that in order to effect economies in food, labor and fuels, arrangements are being made for the establishment of the national kitchen all over the United Kingdom. The people of Great Britain are now on tea rations, and their consumption will be restricted to two ounces per week.
