

Local News Notes

Everything reduced at Gold-bloom's. 145

Mrs. A. G. Aldous of Metlakatla, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. W. G. Barrie was among the arrivals back in town today, after a trip south.

Sub-Inspector McLean, of the Dominion police, arrived back in the city this morning.

A caretaker is needed at the P. R. Rowing and Yacht Club. Apply to A. McRae, at McRae Bros. 14

The Rev. Alfred E. Price, of Metlakatla, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon on a visit.

Mr. Justice Morrison arrived in town this morning from the south, to hold Assize Court here.

Mr. R. V. Winch of Vancouver, was among the arrivals in the city last evening by the "Princess May."

Mr. C. W. Teetzel was among the passengers arriving in the city this morning from the south by the Prince Rupert.

The G. T. P. steamer Prince Rupert will make a special sailing on Sunday night at 9 o'clock for Vancouver and Seattle. 145

Mr. J. D. MacAulay, commercial agent of the G. T. P., is at present in the hospital with stomach trouble, and will not be out again for several days.

Services will be held in the Swedish Lutheran Church tomorrow at eleven o'clock a.m. and 8 o'clock p.m. Sunday school at 2 o'clock. All Scandinavians are welcome. 8

Ex-Mayor McCaffery returned to town this morning by the Prince Rupert after accompanying Mrs. McCaffery and family to Victoria, where they will remain for the summer months.

Mrs. Bryant Newell, of Vancouver, was among the passengers arriving in the city last evening from the south. Mrs. Newell is a sister of Mrs. McMaster, of the teaching staff of King Edward School, and was a resident here some few years ago.

Yesterday expired Mrs. McMaster's term at the King Edward School, and her pupils, in view of her not resuming teaching after the holidays, presented their teacher with a silver butter knife and a large bouquet of flowers. They liked their teacher.

The Princess May arrived in port last evening from the south. Although she has been on the regular run now for several weeks the post office people in Vancouver have not yet connected up with her schedule, and she brings no mail. There are some slow folks in Vancouver.

The masked ball given last Tuesday at Seal Cove in aid of the Seal Cove Red Cross branch was a very happy and successful affair. Fifty dollars was realized for the Society, and everyone attending had a very enjoyable time. The chief interest in the raffles remains with Mrs. H. Steen, Miss Muriel Knighthall, and Mr. Pietrop, these being the fortunate winners.

Take a trip to the salt lakes on the launch Alice B. Boat leaves P. R. Boat House for salt lakes every hour commencing 10 a.m. on Sundays and 2 p.m. on Wednesdays. On other week days two trips starting at 6 and 7 p.m. Round trip Sundays, 35c, week days, 50c. Launches, rowboats, and canoes for hire at all times. Gov't. Wharf, phone Red 391. P. R. Boat House. 14

It is your duty as a citizen, to remain in town on Dominion Day.

Don't be a rolling stone tomorrow. Come on and gather moss, for once, anyway.

The Princess Alice is expected in this afternoon from Alaska on her way south.

The Metlakatla Band and baseball team will be in town on Dominion Day to meet all comers.

So far there are few of the Prince Rupert misses who fear getting mussy gathering moss tomorrow.

An extraordinary meeting of the G. W. V. A. Monday night. Business important. Everyone earnestly requested to attend. 6

The movement of freight and passengers towards the Queen Charlotte Islands continues to flow strongly. The Prince Albert has a particularly heavy cargo today for Port Clements and Masset.

The body of W. G. McLellan, who was accidentally drowned at Claxton Cannery a few days ago, will be sent to Vancouver today for burial. Mr. J. G. McLellan, whose nephew the deceased was, will proceed to Vancouver tomorrow to attend the funeral.

Patriotic celebration on Dominion Day. A fine programme has been arranged by the committee in charge of the arrangements. Parade and children's sports in the morning. Indian sports, ball games and open sports in the afternoon, and a dance in the evening. 144

If, as in some cities, the police magistrate is presented with a pair of white gloves every morning there are no cases for him to try. Magistrate Cars would have a fine stack of them by this time. This morning again, there were no delinquents to be brought before him. Prince Rupert remains good. 14

WATER NOTICE

(Use and Storage).

TAKE NOTICE that George H. Boulton, as agent for Masset Inlet Lumber Co., Ltd., Graham Island Spruce and Cedar Co., Ltd., and Aeroplane Spruce and Cedar Co., Ltd., whose address is Port Clements, B. C., will apply for a licence to take and use 30,000 gallons and to store one-ninth acre feet of water out of Coho Creek, which flows northerly, and drains into the Yakoun River, Masset Inlet. The storage dam will be located at about 600 yards from the mouth of said creek. The capacity of the reservoir to be created is about one-ninth acre feet and it will flood about 0.20 acres of land. The water will be diverted from the stream at a point near the dam, and will be used for domestic and steam purposes upon the land described as Lot 746, Block 35. This notice was posted on the ground on the 29th day of May, 1918. A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act, 1914," will be filed at the office of the Water Recorder at Prince Rupert, B. C. Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder, or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B. C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper. The date of the first publication of this notice is June 1, 1918.
