WHAT GERMANY WANTS

Now that the Germans have shown their hand in the demanding of the Baltic provinces of Russia, the Bolshevik government will either have to give in or fight. Germany is not content with what Russian territory she occupies at present, and that is quite a large area, but she wants practically all the seaboard which the Russians possess fronting upon the Baltic. They threaten to occupy the city of Reval, right in the Gulf of Finland, whence they could menace Petrograd at will. The fallacy of trusting the German government, ever so little is now clearly exposed to even the Bolsheviks. In honesty to themselves, and to the peoples of these provinces, the Bolsheviks cannot agree to the Prussian proposals.

Had the wishes of the peoples of these provinces been taken, and had they been willing to go under the iron rule of the Prussian, instead of that of the Russian government, doubtless, according to their previous statements, the Bolsheviks would have had no objections. The will of the people is the basis for government, as recognized by the Bolsheviks. But Germany will not do this. She would take these populous provinces whether the inhabitants thereof like it or no. The design of the German now being clear, even to the greatest dreamer among the Russians of the freedom of nationalities, the next move is up to the agile Trotsky.

REVOLUTION

The example set by the Russians is now being followed by the Austrians, and it would seem as if the Russians had started something the end whereof is not yet. Some seventy years ago the spirit of unrest passed over Europe, and spread from country to country. There was revolutionary trouble in Hungary, Germany and in Great Britain and France, and at that time Russia was seething, as it has been ever since. How history repeats itself is shown by the spread of the same spirit now, starting in Russia last year, and now evidenced in Austria-Hungary and in Spain. It is safe to say that the same spirit of rebellion will always exist so long as the free development of that which lies in them is denied to mankind. In the uprising in Vienna hopes can only be expressed for success, and the doing away with an effete monarchical system, which has not kept pace with modern development. The national aspirations of the five or six peoples who constitute the Austro-Hungarian Empire must be given an outlet, and the longer that outlet is denied, the greater will be the force of the explosion when it does come.

The Slovenes, the Croats, the Bohemians, and the Hungarians all have at different times made a bid for their independence from the power of Austria, but on each occasion, their demands have been refused, while the Ruthenians, of which there are many settlements in Canada, are part and parcel of the Ukrainian people, with whom they will sooner or later be joined. The holding together of these diverse races under one central government is apparently proving too much for the young Emperor Karl, and even as in Russia, the power of the monarch must become vested in the people.

A HANDFUL

Co-incidental with the information of the revolution in Austria comes the news of a retreat of the Austro-German forces on the northern Italian front in the mountains. Suppressing insurrections at home and maintaining an offensive at the front is proving apparently too much for the armed strength of the forces at the command of the Emperor Karl. Even supposing that affairs in the dual monarchy do go the same way as they did in Russia, one thing may be counted upon and that is that there will be no fraternizing between the allied troops and those of the Central Empires, similar to what took

Appendicitis Operations Not Always Necessary

Internal Bathing Relieves the Cause
Your physician will tell you that Appendicitis is an inflamed condition of the little sack called the Appendix at the lower right-hand corner of the Colon or large intestine. By cleansing this Colon with purified warm water by the "J. B. L. Cascade" this sack is cleansed and the inflammation subsides. Hundreds of operations have been avoided by using the warm water cure for Appendicitis. Mr. Jas. McLaughlin, 91 Evanston street, Winnipeg, writes:

"I had spent over fifty dollars with doctors trying to cure Appendicitis. Finally the doctor said I must go to the hospital at once for an operation. Your advertisement interested me. I bought a 'J. B. L. Cascade,' which relieved me at once, and am now completely cured. Never felt better in my life; all pain and soreness gone, and I eat and sleep like a boy. I am grateful to Dr. Tyrrell for this wonderful health-giving invention." 95 per cent. of all human ills are caused by accumulated waste in the Colon. Internal Bathing with the "J. B. L. Cascade" keeps this large intestine as free from all waste and as clean as nature demands it should be for perfect health. Ask Cyril H. Orme, Druggist, corner 3rd Ave. and 6th st., for booklet called "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient." It is free. He will also be pleased to show and explain the "J. B. L. Cascade" to you.

place on the Russian front during this past year.

Kaiser Wilhelm has been warned in the Reichstag that the conditions of Germany is little better than that of Austria. If Herr Schiedmann knows what he is talking about, and he usually does, then the Emperor William has a pretty handful to deal with. Trouble with his own troops on the Eastern front, trying to help his brother emperor in Austria, and with an ever-growing menace on the Western front will prove to be a greater task than one poor emperor, even if he be Wilhelm, can long survive.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Mr. Hanna, the food controller, has resigned. In order to conserve foodstuffs, Mr. Hanna advised the people to "eat less." His successor, who comes from B. C., may tell the people to "eat fish."

Five thousand million dollars' worth of allied shipping has been destroyed by the U-boat campaign instituted by Germany, according to their own calculations. When peace terms come to be considered, this will doubtless come under the heading of "reparation." Reparation for the material damage done to the wealth of the world will keep the Germans hustling for the next generation.
