ably responded. Fraternity and Canadian ideals they spoke of.

"Our Visitors" was responded to by Mr. Fred Stork, who for the ninth time, had attended the St. Andrews Burns' night. The good fellowship, good cheer, and the associations of such evenings he valued very highly. He introduced Mr. Leedy, of Seattle, one of his old time friends. Upon the president calling upon Mr. Leedy, as the partner of Rex Beach, the writer of Alaska, Mr. Leedy had something characteristic of him to tell.

The gathering then departed after the singing of Auld Lang Syne, and the National Anthem.

GERMANY IS NOW A SUPERMAN NURSERY

Amsterdam. — The "Berliner Tageblatt" devotes considerable space to a discussion on the question of introducing polygamy after the war. While denying the reports that such a movement has official support, the journal admits that polygamy exists all over Germany.

There is, for instance, an 'Eden' colony established for the sole purpose of breeding noble specimens of the human race (Edelmensch). To mention a few others whose avowed objects are the practice and dissemination of the doctrine of free love, there is the German Society for the Regeneration of the Race, the new orders of Templars, and the Aryan Society. All these organizations, the article says, desire to improve the German birth figures by a rabbit-like multiplication of the people. — Central News.

SENTENCED TO SIX HOURS IN JAIL

Edmonton, Jan. 24.—Six hours' imprisonment imposed by the supreme criminal court here Tuesday morning constituted the most novel sentence meted out by any Alberta justice for years. Elizabeth Haywasas is the prisoner, a gypsy from Chicago, convicted on a charge of telling fortunes. She went to jail in the provincial police guardroom short after noon and her hour for release was ordered for the early evening. It was stipulated that she be given two meals while imprisoned. A fine of $100 is also being paid. The case was in the nature of a test case as to the legality of the numerous fortune-telling "parlors" established in the city during the past two months.

For Prince Rupert and district, we have secured the services of Mr. Martin Kroeger, F.R.H.S. Prince Rupert, B. C., phone Red 399. Consult him about your garden problems. British Columbia Nurseries, Ltd., Vancouver, B. C.
