AT THE WESTHOLME

A story of the great out-doors will be screened tonight at the Westholme Theatre under the title of "Pidgin Island." Scenery of remarkable beauty forms part of this film, where woods and water form a fitting background for the meeting of two such daring spirits as John Cranford, played by Mr. Lockwood, and Diana Wynne, played by Miss Allison. Both of these young people are secret agents of the Customs Service and in pursuit of their duties they meet with many strange adventures. The Canadian-United States border is the scene of this play which is one which will appeal to all those who love adventure, romance and out-door life.

Then there is Billie Burke. She appears in the sixth chapter of the great serial which is running, "Gloria's Romance." In this episode, she is seen wearing her wonderful cloth-of-silver robe in the vision scenes, and a vision of delight she is. Even if this be a serial, it is one which can be picked up any time, owing to the full synopsis of the previous reels given each week.

TWO LITTLE IMPS AT WESTHOLME TOMORROW

Tomorrow evening, there will be an all comedy show at the Westholme Theatre. The attraction will be the Lee youngsters, the five and seven year old stars, at their best. There have been many plays and stories written about "the infants terribles" and this play tonight shows them at the best, or worst. The two kids are shown left in the care of their Uncle Billy at a hotel. They start in to help Billy with his wooing. They aid in reforming Billy's sweet-heart's brother Dob, and they finally take part in a battle that lands two burglars in the hands of the police. They do all this their own imitatively way, and the kids of five and seven, display considerable development of intelligence. Then there is a two-part comedy, called the "Honey of 1,000 scandals," which is surely a comedy, rippling and overrunning. This programme is a fine one.

At the Sale of Home Cooking for the Red Cross Society on Saturday, which the Vimy Ridge Knitting Club will conduct in the Red Cross Hut on Third Avenue, Mr. Johnson of Vancouver, will give a special demonstration of cooking.
