HUNGER REAL CAUSE OF GERMAN ILLNESS

Amsterdam, July 25.—The illness from which thousands of persons in German industrial districts are suffering, and which has been described as Spanish influenza, is really an illness due to hunger and consequent exhaustion. The Telegraaf says it has learned.

In various industrial towns in Westphalia and the Rhine provinces, the newspaper reports, many deaths are occurring daily, and the hospitals are full of patients suffering with this malady. The German potato ration, the newspaper adds, has been reduced to between one and one-half and two kilograms weekly per person, and the new potato crop has not yet been distributed.

As the result of the situation brought about by under-nourishment and sickness, it is stated, various branches of German industry are being considerably hampered in the work.

METAL FOR MUNITIONS IS NOW SCARCER WITH GERMANS THAN EVER

Amsterdam, July 25.—After expropriating door handles, window latches, pots and pans and copper and brass utensils for munition purposes, the German military authorities have turned their attention to public buildings with copper roofs. Among the scores of places being stripped are the famous Brandenburg gate, Prince Albrecht's palace, a dozen churches and synagogues and several museums. Some of the best-known hotels, restaurants, department stores and private mansions are being forced to give up their copper roofs.

AUSTRIAN NOBLEMEN SELL THEIR ESTATES

Italian Army Headquarters, July 25.—Austrian prisoners confirm the reports that a large number of noblemen are selling off their estates in Bohemia and Moravia because they fear a revolution. It is said that Count Czernin, former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, has sold for 3,000,000 crowns all his lands in Bohemia, and that the purchaser was a bank with agricultural interests. It is also stated that Count Henry Clam-Martinic, former Premier, expressed the opinion in Vienna that a revolution was probable in Moravia, and he therefore was selling his lands there.

The police commission yesterday agreed to call for tenders for new uniforms for the police staff. Commissioner Macdonald was against the policy of sending out of town for supplies, provided there was no suspicion of the merchants holding up the authorities.
