LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Samuel Dean of Swanson Bay has been appointed justice of the peace.

Incorporation of the Queen Charlotte City Mills is announced in the current number of the Provincial Gazette. This mill is the one recently purchased by O. Besner of this city. The capitalization is set at $49,000.

A peculiar effect of the sun shining through the fog was to be seen off the wharf yesterday. One looking over the wharf would see his own head with a halo round it. "I knew there ought to be one there," remarked one of the persons present, "but I honestly admit I never saw it before"

The Honorably Rejected Volunteers of Canada is the latest organization to be incorporated under the provisions of the Provincial Benevolent Societies Act, notice of the incorporation of a branch in Vancouver of the federal organization being contained in the current week's Gazette. Similar organizations have been incorporated in eastern cities. Vancouver is the first point in British Columbia to have such a body. Qualification for membership is the possession of the certificate and button issued to all those volunteers for service prior to August, 1917, who were honorably rejected.
