PRISONER'S LETTER DESCRIBES AWFUL CONDITION OF CAMPS

German Brutality at Langensalza Cannot Be Equalled, Says Miss Rothwell's Correspondent.

Miss Jessie Rothwell of Prince Rupert has received word from M. D. McCharles, who was a prisoner of war in Germany, that he now is interned in Holland. He had been in many prison camps but the last one, Langensalza, seems to have been an awful place. The letter reads in part: "Received your letter some time ago but was on my back in bed at the time with pneumonia. It had been to Germany so was quite ancient."

"No doubt you are wondering what I am doing here in Holland, when I should be looking dolefully through barbed wire and waiting for the end of the war. I came over here with a party of N. C. O.'s from Langensalza April 30, and if all goes well at the convention that is sitting at The Hague now, I may be in England before so very long. Let us hope so anyway."

"I have been in two hospitals and three camps in Germany but the last one, Langensalza, capped the climax. For filth, lack of attention to sick and wounded and for the brutality of the authorities I don't think it can be beaten in Germany, and that's saying a lot. I've seen cripples and wounded men made to work in the swine pens where the stench and mud were enough to make a strong man sick. I've seen our wounded who had been behind the lines for a month without medical attention taken into camp and if it hadn't been for our own medical stores sent by the Red Cross from England, they would have gone another month without it."

"I shall never forget those nights. Talk about the front and the trenches! One needs to be a prisoner before he realizes what war really means. Were it not for the parcels we receive from home, one half the British prisoners in Germany would never see England again. Conditions are not better now than in 1914. They are worse and food and clothing and especially surgical dressings, are needed more than ever. How I wish every Britisher were out of it."

"You should hear how the British soldier exaggerates our 'Canadianisms.' Where are you going for your holidays? Wish I could choose my summer resort, although this isn't so bad. My pneumonia is a thing of the past so I mustn't grumble."

Keep up the Food Supply and Help Make Victory Sure

OUR soldiers must be fed; the people at home must be fed. And—in spite of Germany's murderous campaign to cut off the Allies' Food supply, by sinking every ship on the High Seas—an ample and unending flow of food to England and France must be maintained.

This is National Service—
 Not to the Farmer only—
 But to YOU—to everybody—
 This appeal is directed

WE must unite as a Nation to SERVE—to SAVE and to PRODUCE. Men, women and children; the young, the middle aged and the old—all can help in the Nation's Army of Production.

EVERY pound of FOOD raised, helps reduce the cost of living and adds to the Food Supply for Overseas.

Two Questions

With so many low-priced so-called anti-skids obtainable, would that great host of motorists pay more for Dunlop "Traction" Tread if they could get its merits elsewhere?

Also, would that other large list of car owners buy "SPECIAL" if tires which somewhat resemble it in appearance resembled it in efficiency?
