Just Camouflage
There was a certain man who sat in the seat of the critic and he was very righteous and often indignant at the supposed ills which he and those of his kind suffered.
And there was a certain statesman who was the butt of the critic's jibes and wit, and who desired that he might have only a little help in the governing of that country, but received none. Not even a crumb of recognition fell from the table of the critic but the political dogs and the unregenerate were the only ones who tried to heal the political sores.
And it came to pass that the statesman died and was carried to the land of the hereafter. And the critic also died and was buried.
And it came to pass that when resting from his work of stoking the furnaces, the critic lifted up his eyes as he wiped the sweat from his wrinkled brow, and seethed the statesman sitting among the blest.
And he cried and said, "Father Abraham, have mercy upon me and send Duff that he may dip his handkerchief in Cow Bay water and cool my parched tongue, for I am tormented with my own invec-tive."
But Father Abraham said, "Son, remember that in thy lifetime thou tookest thy pen and flayed the statesman because he refused thee a piece of rock whereon to sit and fish. Now he has all the water of Cow Bay at his command and thou art tormented."

And besides all this there is a great gulf fixed so that they which would now change their evil habits, find that they cannot do so.
D. E. Ker, of the Brackman-Ker Milling Co., a branch of which firm does business in this city, made the round trip to Anyox and back to Victoria on the Prince Rupert. He was accompanied by his daughter, Doma.

Keep up the Food Supply and Help Make Victory Sure
OUR soldiers must be fed; the people at home must be fed. And—in spite of Germany's murderous campaign to cut off the Allies' Food supply, by sinking every ship on the High Seas—an ample and unflinching flow of food to England and France must be maintained.
This is National Service—Not to the Farmer only—But to YOU—to everybody—This appeal is directed
WE must unite as a Nation to SERVE—to SAVE and to PRODUCE. Men, women and children; the young, the middle aged and the old—all can help in the Nation's Army of Production.
EVERY pound of FOOD raised, helps reduce the cost of living and adds to the Food Supply for Overseas.
PLANT a garden—small or large. Utilize your own back yard. Cultivate the vacant lots. Make them all yield food
WOMEN of towns can find no better or more important outlet for their energies than in cultivating a vegetable garden.
Be patriotic in act as well as in thought.
