Chautauqua Is Worthy of Patronage.

This week a famous group of entertainers and instructors are here in Prince Rupert. A Chautauque Festival has been organized and it has been arranged that there will be five splendid programmes of music and oratory. The object of the party is to provide for just such places as this, where it is difficult for the ordinary touring artists to call, owing to the immense distances. This group of men and women have been visiting the larger centres in Alaska. From Ketchikan, Mr. Staepole wires to the local committee: "Chautauqua best thing ever came to Alaska. Boost it. We have signed for next year." This is an encouraging message and is probably the best kind of advertisement it could get. Prince Rupert will have to make it worth while for institutions of this kind to come here, and it is well to commence right now.

St. Andrew's Society
Commendable Action.

The St. Andrew's Society has decided to arrange that every member of that organization overseas shall have at least one regular correspondent. There is a tendency to forget after men have been away a long time, or rather to have the desire to write crowded out by the stress of business or other calls on one's time. In order to insure that all members shall be kept in mind a special meeting of the society has been called for the purpose of arranging for one member at home to correspond regularly with a member at the front. The plan is a most commendable one and it should be a reminder to those who are not connected with any organization to remember the claims of the boys who have gone overseas to fight for us.

Granby Sailed Away
With Speed Boat Trophy.

Prince Rupert waterfront people are rather worried over the fact that Granby took the speed boat cup back with them on Saturday. Ackerberg Thomson Co. made a good effort to capture the trophy, but the boat was not well balanced and was left hopelessly. Now there are a number of people who are keen on redeeming the lost position and they are already making plans to have that particular bit of silverware deposited in this port for a year when next they get a chance at it. Mr. Campbell sailed away with it on Saturday, just too late to get a challenge for another race. It is to be hoped that the present enthusiasm will keep up and that there will be a number of local boats entered next year.

Exhibition Was Not a Success.

The carnival was a great success but the exhibition was a miserable failure. That seems to be the consensus of opinion everywhere around the city. The exhibits, taken on the whole were poor, they were not well staged, and little interest was taken in them. All this is wrong. It is a shame that Prince Rupert cannot make a decent showing once a year at an exhibition. Something will undoubtedly have to be done to improve things or the exhibition will have to be dropped and that also would be a shameful thing to do.

"The food crisis is grave and urgent, beyond possibility of exaggeration."—Sir Robert Borden

City and Town Labor
Must Save
The Food Situation

THE heart of the food production problem is labor, and the heart of the labor problem is the city dweller. City people must produce food if Canada is to do her full duty in support of our soldiers and Allies.

Men who are needed on farms must come from the cities and towns—there is no other source. The Provincial Departments of Agriculture co-operating with the Canada Food Board, can place thousands of men on good farms in this Province. They are needed at once.

Those who remain at home must also Grow Food

A War Garden will not excuse the man whose rightful place this year is on a farm. But War Garden service is needed from those who can do no more.

Every pound of home-grown vegetables, produced on city land by city labor, will be a positive addition to the food supply. Home Garden and Vacant Lot cultivation will leave the farmers free to grow more food for export.

The vegetable garden offers an opportunity for service to men whose circumstances make it impossible for them to work on a farm, to women, to boys and girls—to city people generally.

Be a Food Producer This Year

If there is a garden or vacant lot movement in your community, associate yourself with it. If no organization exists, do what you can to interest your neighbours in the War Garden campaign. Write to your Provincial Department of Agriculture for pamphlets on gardening and additional information.
