September, 1918.THE GEORGETOWN SAW MILL COM-PANY, LIMITED. 019SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTPre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.Partnership pre-emption abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions, with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.Where a pre-emptor in occupation not less than 5 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.Records without permanent residence may be issued provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $300 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained on these claims in less than 5 years, with improvements of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation, and residence of at least 2 years.Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.For grazing and industrial purposes, areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.
The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war, and this privilege is also made retroactive.TOWNSITE PROPERTY ALLOTMENT ACT.
Provision is made for the grant to persons holding uncompleted Agreements to Purchase from the Crown of such proportion of the land, if divisible, as the payments already made will cover in proportion to the sale price of the whole parcel. Two or more persons holding such Agreements may group their interests and apply for a proportionate allotment jointly. If it is not considered advisable to divide the land covered by an application for a proportionate allotment, an allotment of land of equal value selected from available Crown lands in the locality may be made. These allotments are conditional upon payment of all taxes due the Crown or to any municipality. The rights of persons to whom the purchaser from the Crown has agreed to sell are also protected. The decision of the Minister of Lands in respect to the adjustment of a proportionate allotment is final. The time for making application for these allotments is limited to the 1st day of May, 1919. Any application made after this date will not be considered. These allotments apply to town lots and lands of the Crown sold at public auction.For information apply to any Provincial Government Agent or to Editor Daily News:—

It is to be hoped that we have heard the last on the matter of strikes until the war is ended.
The feutons make a great deal of anything that will assist them in prolonging the war, and to strike while the armies are struggling to right things for the whole world means another day and perhaps another year of conflict.The writer knows something of hard times in B. C., and has worked for different scales of wages, but has never asked for more pay or struck, tying up any concern. It was my privilege to resign, when dissatisfied with wages and conditions, which is the privilege of any man, be he good, bad or indifferent.When times were harder than they are now the Provincial Government paid only $40 a month and board to road workers. Our soldiers are fighting our battles for $1.10 a day and board. It seems preposterous for foreigners—and some of them alien enemies—to ask for and compel the payment of the highest kind of wages during this time of stress.
It looks like taking advantage of our difficulties.When the Masters and Mates handed in their resignations they carried out a law that should be general. If we are not satisfied we should quit and ascertain whether our employers are able to fill our places.It is unfair to the employer and also to the government of a country to close down any necessary work. The majority of the people pay the increased wages anyway. Tying up the streetcar traffic means that a few desire to benefit at the expense of the many. A raised fare means a daily raised rate to streetcar travellers. It is the same on steamers. We, the majority of the people, are willing to do our duty by those who are aggrieved in the way of receiving small returns for their services, or returns that they are dissatisfied with but it should be our privilege to have some say in the raising of our passenger rates, be it on street cars or any other conveyance. Forcing the Government or a municipality to take a stand, one way or the other, is like a boycott on those representing us.The writer also is not an employer, or the member of any fraternal society or union. It has been my privilege to be both an employer and employee. I claim the right to think and act for myself, under all circumstances. The world has been large enough to give employment, for many years, even when we had worse conditions, so far as a living is concerned, than we have now. It is in no spirit of "heroics" that one states that common labor, so called, receives more pay than the writer receives. Consideration was given to the pay of the soldier and the chaotic condition of things since the inception of the war. If another man can earn more than I can and is paid higher wages, so much the better for him. The world's misfortune has been his opportunity; but failed in my case.Let us be optimistic. We are acing hard times, the whole of us who are no better off than four years ago. We should not be downhearted. Many others, especially in France and other countries, are far worse off than we are. We are creatures of circumstances, at best, with a short journey ahead to a land where, we trust, our long home will provide something better than we have here. We take mighty little with us when we go "West" and we are taught that money will not buy either a front pew or anything else in the land where they have no strikes or wars.
