STRENGTHEN THE RESERVE HUDSON'S BAY MANAGER HERE

C. H. French Returning From a Tour of Inspection to Fur Trading Stations of the North.

Foch says everything depends on ample reserves; so does Haig; so does Pershing! They mean military reserves, but there are other reserves just as important. These must be provided by the Home Guard—financial reserves, of course.

If Canadians do not pile up financial reserves now, there will be no real Victory for Canada. Peace will find her in as great peril in one way as war placed her in another.

Who is to provide these reserves? YOU. You are in the Home Guard. You are probably making better wages or bigger profits than you ever did in your life. If you waste your pay this week, when you could save, you are exhausting the reserves. Begin to save today, if you have not started already. All the reserves will be needed in the final drive. Save!

Among the visitors to the city today is C. H. French, general manager for the Hudson's Bay Company in British Columbia. He is a frequent visitor to the city on his way to the interior points or to the north on his regular tours of inspection. Before the advent of the railway, the trips up the Skeena were made on the Hudson's Bay stern wheel steamers, but those vessels have fallen into disuse.

Speaking of the fur trade Mr. French says that the business is greater now than it has ever been. The high price of furs has stimulated business to such an extent that the output has become very large. Most of the hunting and trapping is done by the Indians, especially in the interior.

Mr. French is very much interested in the Indians and their development. He says that not only are they on the increase, especially in the interior, but that they are developing in other directions. They are becoming more civilized and are adopting the customs of white people to a very large extent. This is true almost everywhere, but especially so in all the northern country.

Indian Trade.
The value of the Indian trade to Prince Rupert is one of the subjects that interests Mr. French. He suggests that it will pay the people here to cater to the business as they now earn a lot of money and spend it freely. The result is that any town which caters to the Indian trade is going to prosper.

Mr. French has a young son, Charlie, in the air force overseas. The lad was just finishing his training when he had a fall which put him in the hospital for a number of months. Now he is well again and is about to go to France to ride an aeroplane, possibly made of Prince Rupert spruce, in the big fight.

Mr. French goes south tomorrow to his home in Victoria.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENT

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.
Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.
Partnership pre-emptions abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions, with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.
Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.
Where a pre-emptor in occupation not less than 5 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.
Records without permanent residence may be issued provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $300 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or to record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained on these claims in less than 5 years, with improvements of $10 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years.
Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.
Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.
For grazing and industrial purposes, areas exceeding 40 acres may be leased by one person or company.
PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.
The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war, clear of the privilege is also made retroactive.
TOWNSHIP PROPERTY ALLOTMENT ACT.
Provision is made for the grant to persons holding uncompleted Agreements to Purchase from the Crown of such proportion of the land, if divisible, as the payments already made will cover in proportion to the sale price of the whole parcel. Two or more persons holding such Agreements may group their interests and apply for a proportionate allotment jointly. If or is not considered advisable to divide the land covered by an application for a proportionate allotment, an allotment of land of equal value selected from available Crown lands in the locality may be made. These allotments are conditional upon payment of all taxes due the Crown or to any municipality. The rights of persons to whom the purchaser from the Crown has agreed to sell are also protected. The decision of the Minister of Lands in respect to the adjustment of a proportionate allotment is final. The time for making application for these allotments is limited to the 1st day of May, 1919. Any application made after this date will not be considered. These allotments apply to town lots and lands of the Crown sold at public auction.
For information apply to any Provincial Government Agent or to

Deputy Minister of Lands,
Victoria, B. C.

Say No!

"You might as well have it," whispers temptation, but your Canadian Patriotism says "No!"

THE tempting suggestions of selfishness meet no response from a patriot.

For he knows that selfishness and self-indulgence are just now the allies of the Hun—they fight on Germany's side against Canada.

When the devil-whisper says "You might as well have it," every true Canadian answers "No!"

Except for the bare necessities of life, we should not be spending five cents a day.

For every expenditure we make on things not absolutely necessary directly affects the fighting strength of Canada and her allies.

The materials that go into the making of things you can do without are needed for our soldiers overseas.

Many of those materials which enter into our unnecessary purchases are brought from other countries and occupy precious space in ships; space sorely needed for those cargoes which can be used for the winning of the war.

The labor that fashions the things we unnecessarily use is labor which could and would be employed to real advantage in the production of war necessities.

Knowing all this, how dare you divert a single unnecessary dollar from your country's war effort!

The shame that must inevitably follow your every self-indulgence, at so grave a time, will be your fitting punishment—if you persist in buying the things you merely want and do not need.

Resist indulgence, cultivate thrift—for thrift is an evidence of patriotism.

And the money you save by thrift will be yours to lend to your country whenever the call comes.

Two Questions

With so many low-priced so-called anti-skids obtainable, would that great host of motorists pay more for Dunlop "Traction" Tread if they could get its merits elsewhere?

Also, would that other large list of car owners buy "SPECIAL" if tires which somewhat resemble it in appearance resembled it in efficiency?
