LOCAL ITEMS

Dr. and Mrs. Francis J. Nicholson of Bucanier Bay are passengers aboard the Prince Rupert today going through to make the round trip to Skagway. Dr. Nicholson is a retired physician and surgeon.

Among the questions discussed by the Chamber of Commerce executive yesterday was the load line problem, a communication in regard to it having been received from the Vancouver Board of Trade president.

The B.C. Products Bureau representative is planning to visit Prince Rupert and the local Chamber of Commerce will co-operate in connection with a proposed lecture, it was decided, at a meeting of the council of the Chamber yesterday.

The Chamber of Commerce has received a letter from the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. Ltd. in which it states that it does not think the establishment of a smelter or refinery a feasible proposition at the present time. Also a letter of an unfavorable nature had been received from Sir Arthur Gibbs. Both letters were in reply to communications sent by the Chamber.

FUL-VUE RIMLESS GLASSES MAKE A BIG HIT

The Ful-Vue frame is popular but the Ful-Vue Rimless is making the big hit, very becoming, light in weight, quite inconspicuous, and being flexible practically eliminates breakages which were so common to the old style rimless glasses. Since we introduced this to the people of Prince Rupert early in the year we have not had a single lens breakage occur and we have fitted a good many pair of the popular mounting.

We would be pleased to show you. Optical Dept., Max Heilbronner, Jeweler.
