A BOUQUET

"Resources" is the name of a new and beautiful monthly published at Prince Rupert under the management of Weston Coyney. He is a noted writer, and at one time was on the staff of the New York Herald and World. He was connected with the New Denver Ledger in 1897, and left that paper to write up the Klondike for the New York Herald. May he have plenty of prosperity is the wish of many friends. — Greenwood Lodge.

LUX

BLANKETS are luxuriously clean, soft and fleecy when washed with LUX. Every housewife knows that blankets are very liable to shrink in the wash and become hard and thick. LUX is the ideal preparation for washing blankets, all woolen things, fine laces, etc., because it cannot shrink them.

LUX is the economical cleanser—it dissolves readily in hot water—makes a foamy, cream-like lather which soaks rather than forces the dirt out of clothes.
