"GALIANO" IN DISTRESS

MESSAGE SENT AT 3.30 A. M. SAID HOLDS FILLED WITH WATER

Turkey and Austria are Asking Peace

ADMIRALTY PATROL STEAMER GALIANO REPORTS BY WIRELESS IN DISTRESS AND ASKS AID

Further Word from Her Gives Impression that She may have Foundered; Steam Trawler G. E. Foster Gone to Make Search.

It is possible that the Admiralty patrol steamer Galiano has gone down with ail on board off the south end of Queen Charlotte Islands. The last word heard from her by wireless was that her holds were full of water and she was in distress. That was at 3.30 this morning and nothing has been heard from her since.
The steam trawler Foster has gone to the rescue and there is a possibility of her being still afloat, but the silence of wireless is, to say the least, ominous.

At 3.30 this morning at the Digby Island Wireless station one of the operators was "listening in" when he got a call from the Galiano off Cape St. James, saying that the holds were full of water and asking for help. She also reported that the weather was terrific.

The wireless operators at once tried to get in touch with the Galiano at the Queen Charlottes but there was no boat at Thurston Island or any other point on the islands that could possibly venture out in the terrific gale. Then efforts were made to reach boat Foster here, but with no good result until late this morning when Foster's Inspector Williams was appealed to and he at once got in touch with Manager Johnson of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co., who agreed to send out the steam trawler G. E.
Foster, a fine seaworthy boat that can stand any sea. She left at just one hour after being notified that her services were needed. She is in charge of Captain F. R. Walters, an experienced navigator.

The G. T. P. tug Lorne also left this afternoon going south, and will go as far as possible in the direction of the Galiano, to render whatever assistance may be possible. From the gale which is reported raging down the coast, however, it may be impossible for the Lorne to get across the Strait, but if it is at all possible, she will do so.

Hope Not Gone.

The probable loss of the Galiano is the topic of discussion everywhere on the waterfront this morning. It is pointed out that while the storms on that part of the coast are worse than at any other and the gale last night was reported to be a terrific one, yet the Galiano may be floating helplessly and waterlogged and may yet be picked up. It is also possible that she may have been driven ashore and the lives of those aboard saved. Something must have happened to put the wireless out of business.
Cape St. James is the southernmost point of the Queen Charlotte Island group, and is exposed to the full sweep of the gales coming from any direction. The coast there is very rocky and steep.

Sister to Malaspina.

The Galiano is a sister ship to the Malaspina. She was in command of Capt. Pope and Mr. Greenhields was in charge of the engines. She had a crew of between thirty and forty, some of whom were young men who were training in the naval service.
The vessel was built at Dublin in 1913 for the Dominion Government fisheries patrol service. After war broke out she was, with other boats in the service, taken over by the Admiralty and engaged in patrol duties up the coast. She was 168.8 feet long, 27.1 beam, and 13.1 in depth. Her gross tonnage was 393, nominal tonnage 120 and her engines had a nominal horsepower of 61.

THIRD OF FAMILY DIED YESTERDAY

William Church, Eldest Son of Parents Who Were Victims of Influenza.

The death of William Church is reported this morning at the General Hospital. He was a young man aged nineteen years, and it was only last week that his father, George Church, died at the Borden Emergency Hospital, and his mother at the General Hospital.
He was the eldest of a family of nine children, and only yesterday his younger brother aged eight was admitted to the General Hospital suffering from influenza also. This boy, William, was born at Victoria, and was employed as fireman at the Cold Storage Company's plant at Seal Cove. He was admitted to the hospital on the 24th, and died yesterday.

A few more cases have been admitted to the General Hospital since yesterday, but they are not so serious as the average cases taken there last week.

Jim Hunter is making slight progress, and W. Vaughan Davis is distinctly better this morning.
Among the later patients at the General Hospital are Mr. and Mrs. Pete Linzey, and their condition is favorable.

London, October 30.—The Versailles Conference of the Supreme War Council of the Allies, according to a report current in London this afternoon, has agreed on the main points of the armistice terms which will now be considered by the military commanders. Final peace terms, it is said, will be submitted to Germany simultaneously with the armistice terms.

As part of the terms of the armistice, the Evening Times says it understands the Allied nations will insist upon the surrender of the German fleet, including all German submarines and the occupation by Allied forces of all fortified towns on the Rhine.

Paris, October 30.—The Executive Committee of the German Peace Party has formed a provisional Government, according to reports from Vienna, and has decided to send a separate note to President Wilson.

The Arbitrator Zeitung of Vienna declares Germany and Austria-Hungary will capitulate without delay.

Austria's Request.

Vienna, via Basel, October 30.—Austria-Hungary through her Foreign Minister, Count Andrássy, has sent a note to Secretary of State Lansing requesting the Secretary's intervention with President Wilson for an immediate armistice on all fronts and the commencement of peace negotiations.

Turkey Also Suppliant.

London, October 30.—Turkey has independently presented peace proposals to the Entente nations, according to a report from Constantinople forwarded by a correspondent at Copenhagen of the Exchange Telegraph Company. Negotiations are expected to end soon.

BORDEN ST. HOSPITAL IS STILL VERY BUSY

Decrease in Number of Patients With One Death There
Since Yesterday.

Four more patients suffering from influenza were admitted to the Borden Street Emergency Hospital yesterday, and one was well enough to be discharged. The newer patients, however, are being received in time before the malady has obtained a fatal hold, and they have very much better chance of making a good recovery.

There was one death since yesterday, that of a Serbian named Debech, who was very sick when brought to the hospital. All the other patients are in a fair way.

There is now a great decrease in the number of new cases of influenza being reported daily, and every indication that the epidemic is definitely past its worst. The number of deaths is also on the decline, and although possibly the number of sufferers from the disease is as great as ever, the number of serious cases is very much smaller.

At the Borden Street Hospital, there is still a demand for further help, both in the kitchen and in the wards. Several of the volunteers have taken ill and are suffering from the strain of long hours and the unaccustomed work and the necessity for further assistants to replace these remains great.

NEW CABINET AT ARCHANGEL FORMED

Large Majority of Socialists Recently Elected to Duma and Big Bourgeois Vote.

Archangel, Oct. 29.—The Government in northern Russia again has been reorganized and the supreme power again conferred on Nicholas Tschaikovsky. Colonel Luroff will retain his position as Governor General and Military Commander in the region of the north.

With the exception of Premier Tschaikovsky, all the members of the Cabinet belong to bourgeois parties. In addition to the Cabinet there is an Advisory Council of fifteen men, representing all strata of society and all parties.

In Archangel the elections recently held for members of the Duma resulted in a large majority for the Socialists, although the bourgeois vote was larger than ever before.

The new Cabinet meets with the general approval of the Allied diplomatic corps here.

CIVILIANS FLYING IN PANIC FROM VALLEY OF THE RHINE

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

London, October 30.—(By British wireless). Civilian departures from the Lower Rhine Land and part of Westphalia, which were begun on a small scale, when the first Allied bombs hit Cologne, have developed into a panic flight, according to The Hague correspondent of the Daily Mail. All the banks are being stormed by depositors.

Duke of Devonshire Acts Quickly

His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire wants a share of Canada's Second Victory Loan. The following letter explains why:

Ottawa, October, 1918.

My Dear Sir Thomas,

I shall be glad if you will again include my name in the first list of subscribers to the Victory Loan of 1918.

This loan I am sure is of the utmost national importance in connection with Canada's continued effectual prosecution of the war, and the establishment of Imperial credits for the purchase of foodstuffs, munitions and other supplies urgently required by Great Britain and her Allies.

I have every confidence that the patriotism of the Canadian people which has so nobly sustained every duty and obligation imposed by the war will again respond to the appeal and that the Victory Loan of 1918 will be even a more striking and notable success than that of last year.

Believe me, my dear Sir Thomas,

Yours very truly, (Signed) DEVONSHIRE.

Hon. Sir Thomas White, K. C. M. G.
Ottawa.
