Refused to Leave Bombed Hospital
Until Nurses Compelled Them
To Go Into Dugouts.

With the American Army North-west of Verdun, Nov. 1.—American wounded soldiers who were in the American hospital near which German bombing planes dropped explosives in the neighborhood of Rarecourt were so little concerned that they refused to leave the building and enter dugouts until compelled to do so by the nurses.

Margery Sawyer of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mabel Butler of New Haven, Conn., Red Cross nurses, said they found these men calm, although the hospital had been damaged and the wards were filled with smoke.

The first thoughts of the nurses were regarding the wounded,

You Never Know What A Man Will Do

Mrs. Williams has been using Pacific Milk for cooking a long long time. Her husband got to using it in his morning coffee so they never buy fresh milk any more.

The other evening Mrs. W. bought some fresh cream to give him a treat (as she thought) with his porridge and to use with his coffee.

However, Mr. Williams didn't see it that way and when he discovered it was a different cream in the pitcher, he asked for the same as he'd been getting every morning—couldn't drink his coffee with the other "stuff."

whom they had expected to find panic-stricken.

"I was aroused by the alarm of an air raid," Miss Sawyer said, "but some one suggested that the Germans were merely passing by. Then there was a terrific explosion, followed by an upheaval of my cot, and I was tossed across the room, glass falling all around me, and rocks and dirt, too. I have cared for many gas patients, and have heard their stories. The room was filled with smoke, and I thought of gas, and that scared me more than anything else. Then Miss Butler came, and we went to assist the patients."

Miss Butler said she was attending a soldier when the first bomb struck.

"We simply had to drive the doughboys into the dugouts," Miss Sawyer said. "One whom I aroused said bombs meant nothing to him, and insisted in turning over and going to sleep."

SYNOPSIS OF ## LAND ACT AMENDMENT

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.

Partnership pre-emption abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emption, with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.

Where an applicant in occupation not less than 5 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $100 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained on these claims in less than 5 years, with improvements of $10 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years.

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing and industrial purposes, areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.

PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

TOWNSITE PROPERTY ALLOTMENT ACT.

Provision is made for the grant to persons holding uncompleted Agreements to Purchase from the Crown of such proportion of the land, if divisible as the payments already made will cover in proportion to the sale price of the whole parcel. Two or more persons holding such Agreements may group their interests and apply for a proportionate allotment jointly. If it is not considered advisable to divide the land covered by an application for a proportionate allotment, an allotment of land of equal value noticed from available Crown lands in the locality may be made. These allotments are conditional upon payment of all taxes due the Crown or to any municipality. The rights of persons to whom the purchaser from the Crown has agreed to sell are also protected. The decision of the Minister of Lands in respect to the allotment of a proportionate allotment is final. The time for making application for these allotments is extended to the 1st day of May, 1919. Any application made after this date will not be considered. These allotments apply to town lots and lands of the Crown sold at public auction.

For information apply to any Provincial Government Agent for Lands.

G. R. NADEN,
Deputy Minister of Lands,
Victoria, B. C.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Sale of Lands to be held on the twenty-fourth day of October next upon which delinquent taxes are due has been postponed so far as lands in the Prince Rupert Assessment District are concerned and that on the 25th day of November following a sale will be held of all such lands in the said Assessment District.
