

WALT MASON'S IDEA OF SUFFERING

Are claims of sacrifice all fibs? We see around me men and dames who have much fat upon their ribs, and costly rags upon their backs. Their silks and feathers flaunt, and wear fine lids upon their domes, and talk of how the wolf of want is howling by their humble homes. We eat as much as in the times when peace was here, with all its charms, because the Prussian's beastly crimes made Uncle Sam to take up arms. And when we've stowed away a steak, and packed some pie and added down, we think we've made some tyrant quake because the bread we ate was brown. The clothes we wear, it seems to me, are just as gaudy as they were before our boys went o'er the sea. Fill the air with German fur. We're just as keen to blow the horn as though we hadn't any foes and we take in every brand of fun from prize fights down to movie shows. We talk as though our souls were set on putting Wilhelm in a crutch, but have you seen a fellow yet who looks as though he'd suffered much? We'll talk of sacrifice, no doubt, until the dawn of peace has dawned; and meanwhile every loyal scout would miss no chance to buy a

Ye Town Crier

In the Year 2018

One hundred years ago
This town was here,
Much as it is now.
It always had
Prospects of becoming
The best port on the coast,
But the people
Who lived here
Didn't care a darn
Whether it developed
Or not.
They said
Why should we do anything?
Let George do it,
The Edge would say;
If we improve the port
Others will benefit
As much as we,
We should worry
If the town grows
Or not.
We can still live
In our little circle
Like clams on the beach,
We'll not listen
To fool talk
About improvements,
Let the fishermen
Go south
Or to some other place
Where the weather's hot.
All this fool talk
Is nothing but bunk.
That is why
The village is like this
With wooden houses,
Many needing paint,
Others tumbling down
And we still talk
Of improving the town
But never take action.
Ketchikan is a city.
And Sitka is a good town,
While Poor old Rupert
Is tumbling down.

MANY LIVES SAVED

Thousands of the best families have maintained a standard of health during the Flu Epidemic by using a diet composed of coarse food and a dose of KENNEDY'S TONIC PORT before meals.

Rev. A. E. Price who was in town at the week end said that they had had thirty cases of influenza at Metlakatla and during the last ten days had had no doctor there. So far there had been no deaths and all were doing well.

Canada CAN and WILL

ON July 31, 1918, Canadians had on deposit in banks more than a billion five hundred million dollars — that was $160,000,000 more than was on deposit on the same date in 1917.

And, in the meantime, Canadians had invested $425,000,000 in the Victory Loan 1917. Besides that they had bought $60,000,000 worth of provincial and municipal bonds.

So the people of Canada during the past year have accumulated $485,000,000 in bonds and over $160,000,000 in cash more than they had on July 31, 1917. That represents concrete accumulated wealth.

Canada is to-day the richest country in the world, per capita.

Her war debt per capita is lower than that of any other fighting nation.

So Canada undoubtedly has the ability to oversubscribe the Victory Loan 1918.

And Canada must manfully and loyally support the Victory Loan 1918, because the national safety, the national honor and the prosperity of the country are at stake.

Canada's business prosperity is necessary to the maintenance of Canada's war efficiency.
