Highest Honor In the Empire.

The very highest honor that can be bestowed upon a civilian has been won by Lieut.-Col. G. W. Peck of Prince Rupert. It is with pride that his fellow citizens speak of his recognition and every Prince Rupert man must feel that he shares somewhat in the reflected glory of the man who has performed gallant deeds of daring.

The Victoria Cross is awarded sparingly and only for outstanding deeds. Only a few Canadians in all have received the coveted decoration, officers and privates competing on equal terms for the one mark which singles them out as men of high daring and bright intellect.

The News is glad to be able to add its quota to the congratulations which the gallant colonel must be receiving. Like General Currie, Col. Peck seems to have been one of the big men of the Canadian army, an army which is full of much splendid material. We hope that the Colonel will return home very soon to receive in person the proper recognition from the citizens which it is quite certain will be given such splendid work for the Empire. When he comes there must be no half hearted celebration. It must be full and complete and will be joined in just as heartily by those who happened to be opposed to him politically as by those who elected him. Winning a Victoria Cross has nothing to do with politics. It is heroism of the highest kind.

Make Prince Rupert Centre for Mining.

D. B. Morkill in an interview yesterday spoke from professional experience when he said that this was a natural mining centre. At the same time Prince Rupert people may easily help this along. They may give every encouragement to mining visitors to get in touch with those whom they would like to meet and in time it is quite possible that a mining exchange might be established.

The News is always glad to publish items of news dealing with mining matters and is glad to have the co-operation of prospectors and miners who have first hand experience.

Entry Into Strassburg To Be Imposing Ceremony.

The entry of Marshal Foch into Strassburg is to be an imposing ceremony. It seems necessary that an impression should be made, especially in a province which has been under the domination of the Germans for so many years. This is to be the great occasion, apparently and it will be spectacular.

Marshal Foch has not been a spectacular general. There has been nothing with him but real scientific modern fighting, strategy of the highest kind and result getting. That is in line with modern business. Now we find him making a change but doubtless it is with the same purpose. He never does anything without a reason. There is no childish delight in display that can turn him aside from his main purpose.

Asiatic Question Again to Front.

In the Okanagan there is a movement against allowing Asiatics to own land. The farmers are getting nervous. They were some years ago howling to have the Orientals introduced to provide coolie labor on which they could make profits. Now the coolie labor refuses to remain coolie labor and instead becomes proprietary.

The whole gamut of human selfishness is run in the double attitude of the Okanagan farmers. What they really wanted was a lot of slaves, but they could not say so. At any rate they wanted a subservient class, which is the next worst thing to a slave class. Now they object because the subservient class is not subservient.

The Oriental question is going to be the one difficult one following the war, because the standards of living in the Orient are so far below those here. Efforts will undoubtedly be made to introduce Hindus and Japanese and possibly Chinese, and to this there would be little objection if the standard of living to which they were accustomed were as high as the standard of living here.

The people of India have been fighting the battles of the Empire side by side with our men in the trenches; the Japanese have been Allies and their ships have been a protection to this coast at a time when protection was needed. With this in view the Oriental question becomes a most seriously difficult one and it will need wise handling to prevent serious friction, injustice or an appearance of ingratitude.

Keep up the Food Supply and Help Make Victory Sure

"I AM assured that my people will respond to every call necessary to the success of our cause—with the same indomitable ardour and devotion that have filled me with pride and gratitude since the war began."
HIS MAJESTY KING GEORGE

OUR soldiers must be fed; the people at home must be fed. And—in spite of Germany's murderous campaign to cut off the Allies' Food supply, by sinking every ship on the High Seas—an ample and unfailing flow of food to England and France must be maintained.

This is National Service—
Not to the Farmer only—
But to YOU—to everybody—
This appeal is directed

WE must unite as a Nation to SERVE—to SAVE and to PRODUCE. Men, women and children; the young, the middle aged and the old—all can help in the Nation's Army of Production.

EVERY pound of FOOD raised, helps reduce the cost of living and adds to the Food Supply for Overseas.
