In the Letter Box

To the Editor:—

Please may I, too, have a little shake at that old Cow Bay election mat. I've had the flu and had to take some aspirin, but am not asperin' for a municipal seat.

Really, Mr. Editor, I don't smoke. But this here "dog in the manger" Mr. Rorvik speaks of; can't we change it to "dog-on-it, dog in the net, you know," with Cow Bay the only loose end, or broken mesh in the net. Mr. Rorvik would be very quick to mend an opening in his purse (net) strings, and so are the logical owners, or controllers of the high tariff boundaries of this high tariff sweat shop a lot of us have gotten into. Cow Bay is the only weak spot in that boundary of stagnation or high tolls collected off everything coming and going.

What reason have we "dogs in the net" to trust the fine plans of either sensible council boards, or brilliant governments? Do we need to refer to previous agreements, or the energy with which this long suffering and terribly delayed company have developed and used the miles of suitable railroad ground, instead of always crying and kicking and intriguing over a few rods open between the local small craft and the local small graft inside the tariff boundary. "The toll gates of old," Mr. Rorvik.

No. Hang on, Mr. Dog-in-the-net. They may fool tax sale artists with painted baits, but they can't "coddle Colly with the crusts" twice.

'Tis true, Mr. Editor, we are overloaded with Governments, principally corporate agencies, juggling, sparring and tricking with brilliant diplomacy; feeding each other with wordy compliments, and fat salaries, while the real bees toil all tangled in red tape and blinded by the glitter of highly painted plans and decorations.

"With the Ottawa Sphinx 'rights riparian,'

"The G. T. P. still abearing
"And the Mitie Rupert Mayor a-naying."

Who would, or could, own Cow Bay? Mr. Hoomes K.?

Why don't the Ottawa tape weavers forget that half acre of mud flat. Why don't the Victoria yarn spinners get busy with some useful knitting? Why don't the G. T. P. do something with what they already have above the water line? And why in God's name don't that vegetating bunch, the City Council, quit their stupefying smoke sessions, and do something to break the chains of alien concessions and swamp a little for the only live wires this burg really has.

Let's hope, Mr. Rorvik, that we may have a little more than a pre-election "peep, peer" this time. With the mighty rattle of Europe's dry bones, and the clang, clang of their vicious crowns tumbling down, may we start our drydock, and cure the dry rot that has set in under the blanket curse, the blanket of shoddy and false pretense.

Yours for a wake-up to the "use" of things,

W. SHAW.

BELLA COOLA PEOPLE MADE GOOD MONEY AT FISHING THIS SEASON

That the residents of Bella Coola have earned during the past fishing season sums ranging from $2,000 to $3,000 per man, and that they are among the most prosperous people in British Columbia is the report brought from that place by P. W. Anderson of the local public works department of the Provincial Government. Each resident owns a farm and most of the farms are facing on the banks of the Bella Coola river. There they keep their cows, raise poultry and vegetables and some of them farm to a larger extent. Then in the summer they fish and live on their homesteads for the rest of the year. It is an ideal life.

Mr. Anderson has been inspecting the roads in the Bella Coola district where some diversions are being made. The floods last year caused a good deal of damage but the people are as prosperous as ever and they showed this by subscribing very liberally to the Victory Bond issue.

Sunlight dispels the shadow that once hung over wash day

IN fact many women do not say "wash day" any more. They say "Sunlight Day". It's a genuine pleasure to use Sunlight Soap because it means an economical wash, it means a quick wash. Why? Because, Sunlight is absolutely pure—you need only half the quantity as compared with ordinary soaps, nor will Sunlight harm any delicate fabrics, or hurt your hands. And it really takes the labour out of the washing in surprisingly little time as you will see by following the directions.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENT

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.

Partnership pre-emptions abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions, with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.

Where pre-emptor in occupation not less than 5 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $300 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained on these claims in less than 5 years, with improvements of $10 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years.

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing and industrial purposes, areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

TOWNSITE PROPERTY ALLOTMENT ACT.

Provision is made for the grant to persons holding uncompleted Agreements to Purchase from the Crown of such proportion of the land, if divisible, as the payments already made will cover in proportion to the sale price of the whole parcel. Two or more persons holding such Agreements may group their interests and apply for a proportionate allotment jointly. If it is not considered advisable to divide the land covered by an application for a proportionate allotment, an allotment of land of equal value selected from available Crown lands in the locality may be made. These allotments are conditional upon payment of all taxes due the Crown or to any municipality. The rights of persons to whom the purchaser from the Crown has agreed to sell are also protected. In respect to the Minister of Lands in respect to the adjustment of a proportionate allotment made after this date will not be considered. These allotments apply to town lots and lands of the Crown sold at public auction.

A Song for Every Mood

Music gives expression to every human emotion. All that is happy and beautiful in life, has been expressed in music.

When things seem bright and cheerful because a ray of happiness has come into your life, you need an outlet to give vent to your feelings.

When sorrow or depression comes, the need of consolation is even greater.

It is at such times that you derive the greatest comfort from

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Then one sweet note of the voice of Anna Case, or one ripple of melody from the bow of Albert Spalding, puts your soul in harmony with the world. Music—real music—is one of life's greatest boons. Edison music is real music because the New Edison does not merely imitate, it re-creates. One never tires of the New Edison, the novelty never wears off, because there is no novelty to wear off. It is not just another "talking machine". It is decidedly different. To appreciate the difference you must hear it.

We will gladly submit the New Edison to your musical judgment either here or in your own home.
