DR. GERVAIS CONFESSES TO ANOTHER MURDER WHEN HE IS ARRAIGNED IN COURT

TWO ASSOCIATES ADMIT CRIME AND SAY THEY AGREED TO SHOOT ANYONE WHO CAME NEAR THEIR PLACE ON STEEP CREEK

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Prince Albert, Sask., Nov. 26.—Kean Stgermain and Victor Carmel, under arrest here after an exciting chase, admit having shot James McKay at Steep Creek and tied the body to a plank when they put it into the river. They say they had arranged to shoot any stranger who come to the place as they were draft evaders and suspected everyone whom they did not know.

Gervais was today formally charged with the murder of James McKay and the other two with the murder of McKay and Horsley.

New developments were revealed when Dr. Gervais furnished another thrill to the authorities. The "doctor" expressed a desire to talk and intimated that he had something important to convey, nothing short of details of another murder. He said Carmel shot and killed Adolphe Lajoie about a year ago, burned his body by settting fire to the bed and shack, and to hide the crime, placed a clay pipe between the bed springs so as to indicate that the murdered man had set fire accidentally to the bed on which he was lying.

"Go to the grave and you will find that the skull of Lajoie has a bullet hole in the forehead. Lajoie was my partner in a farm at Steep Creek and you can see the joint agreement of purchase," said Gervais. The police did so and found the skull with a bullet hole as stated.

VORWAERTS WARNS GERMANS AGAINST GANG OF MURDERERS

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

London, Nov. 26.—In a warning against a Kaiserite counter revolution, Berlin Vorwaerts, the official organ of the Ebert Government, declares, "that gangs of murderers are still planning to re-establish themselves." Vorwaerts made the statement in commenting on the Bavarian disclosures on the origin of the war. It pointed out that the German Government said it was ignorant of the Austrian ultimatum before it was delivered to Serbia and that it said Vienna was exhorted to be moderate in its demands. The facts are, says Vorwaerts, "That Berlin incited Vienna." Wilhelm said: "The enemy attacked us." This is an infamous lie.

WAR VETERANS MAKE FINAL ARRANGEMENTS

Street Parade to Be Imposing Spectacular Event in Which All Will Take Part.

ORDER OF PRECEDENCE DIFFICULT TO ALLOT

Places Found For All Organized Bodies in City—Assemble at 2; Start 2:30.

At a meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association held last evening complete arrangements were made for the big street parade to take place tomorrow afternoon. People are invited to meet at the Great War Veterans' rooms on Third Avenue at 2 p.m. and the parade will start sharp at 2:30.

Everyone is expected to take part in the parade and thus leave no spectators.

The order of precedence was a difficult matter to arrange in order not to offend any. All organizations have been allowed places and any who do not come under any of the headings are asked to take part and will be given places by the marshal.

It is understood that a number of floats have been prepared and some of these will prove quite spectacular. The following is the order of the procession:

Emblem carried by two returned soldiers.
Peace and Victory Float, G. W. V. A.
Mounted returned soldier.
War Veterans.
honorably rejected volunteers.
Brass band.
Mayor and Council.
Ladies' Auxiliary, G. W. V. A.
Red Cross Society.
Queen Mary Chapter, I. O. D. E.
Hill 60 Chapter, I. O. D. E.
Adair Carss Chapter, I. O. D. E.
Sons of Canada float representing Canada.
Sons of England float, representing England; St. Andrew's Society representing Scotland; representatives of Ireland, Wales, India, Belgium, France, Serbia, Italy, United States, Japan, Roumania, Montenegro, Greece.
Friendly Societies, (order to be arranged by Marshall.)
Trades and Labor Council, trades, unions, (order to be arranged by Marshall.)
School children, private motor cars, boy scouts, (to be placed by Marshall.

MUCH DAMAGE BY WINDSTORM

Last Night's Gale Levels Peace Triumphal Arch—Lifts Many Shingles and Breaks Much Glass.

VELOCITY OF THE GALE MAKES MUCH DISCOMFORT

Just before dark last evening the harbor presented a wild appearance, as the wind freshened. It was covered with whitecaps and as the gusts of wind gained in strength sheets of spray were raised high in the air. Early in the evening a more furious gust than usual made short work of the Triumphal Arch in course of construction for the procession tomorrow. It was empletely crumpled up and today the carpenters are busily engaged re-erecting it. Considerable damage has been reported round town as a result of the gale. All the street lights down town were out of commission and much glass was smashed. The big plate glass window of Crosbie's furniture store blew out early. The Royal Bank building and McRae Bros. each lost a window, and the roof of the Smith Block was lifted, and the building consequently flooded with the heavy rain later.

At the drydock a big scow laden with lumber broke away and drifted up the inlet. Hayner's garage on Second Avenue collapsed, and the sidewalk from Fifth Avenue to John Conway's house would be more in keeping with the western front. A big tree growing behind Mayor McClymont's house missed his back door by a few feet and from dozens of other houses shingles and chimneys have been blown off. This morning the full fury of the gale was expended.

DAILY MAIL SERVICE BY AIRPLANE WITH FRANCE AND AMERICA

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

London, Nov. 26.—All mails between Europe and the United States eventually will be carried by airplane, according to Lord Morris, who has championed the movement before the Parliamentary committee for the establishment of a port of call for Atlantic liners on the west coast of Ireland. Already, he says, the regular daily mail service by airplane is maintained between England and France without interruption by weather.

Big Bonafide Reconstruction Sale

Of High-Grade Jewellery, Diamonds, Platinum Watches and Clocks. All kinds of Genuine Cut Glass, Community and Robers' Plate Silverware, Carving Sets, Ivory Sets, Umbrellas; in fact, every article in our Large and Well-Selected Stock will be sold at a big discount.

This sale is just a matter of business with me. My stock is all paid for. I don't have to raise money. I am not going out of business. I just want to reduce my stock before the reconstruction of prices by manufacturers commences, to be in shape to meet the keenest competition, as has always been my policy in the past, and will continue to be in future.

Seeing is believing. Shop early and save money, and don't forget, quality is what counts.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS IN NEW YORK BROKE UP MASS MEETING OF BOLSHEVIKI

CHARGED THROUGH CORDON OF POLICE AND ATTACKED CROWD WHO PACKED BUILDING IN MADISON SQUARE GARDEN LAST NIGHT

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

New York, Nov. 26.—Hundreds of soldiers and sailors broke through a cordon of police surrounding Madison Square Garden last night and attacked international agents, who addressed a mass meeting at which Bolsheviki doctrines were expounded. Men and women leaving the hall broke and fled as men in uniform charged the police, but were pursued into side streets in all directions.

The opening of the doors of the garden witnessed a wild scene. Soldiers and sailors fought their way past, swinging night sticks and attacked the Socialists who had packed the building.

Almost instantly the square was filled with yelling, running, fighting men.

Mounted police reinforced by automobile loads of reserves, rushed from every station house within a radius of miles, struggling valiantly to clear the square, but made little progress.

MARINE PARADE ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETE

Imposing Spectacle Such as Has Never Before Been Seen Here, is Expected.

MALASPINA TO HAVE POSITION OF HONOR

All Vessels to Follow Lead of the Naval Ship at Five Knot Speed.

The Marine Parade which has been arranged as the opening scene in the big celebration tomorrow is to be the greatest event that Prince Rupert has ever seen. All the vessels in the harbor are invited to take part, and Commodore Saunders will arrange the line up.

The naval patrol steamer Malaspina will head the parade and she will be followed by the Prince George, which is expected to arrive early, especially for the occasion. Vessels will assemble at 10 and start as soon as the line up is arranged.

The parade will tart on a signal gun being fired by the Malaspina and will proceed at a five-knot speed, the larger vessels keeping 300 yards apart and the distance gradually diminishing with the smaller craft. All boats are expected to follow the lead.

If it is fine the line will proceed down the farther side of the harbor where the whole will be in plain view from this side. At the lower end of the harbor it will turn on a starboard helm and proceed up the harbor on this side next the docks.

A flag will be flying on the open space at the G. T. P. docks and this will be the saluting point where the mayor and council and band will assemble.

When passing the flag each ship will salute by dipping the flag and then proceed on as far as the drydock, keeping the line and not dispersing until the signal is given by the Malaspina firing the second gun.

If the weather is stormy the line will come down the inside instead of the farther side of the harbor and salute on the way down. The vessels will all get their directions by following the leading ship.

The committee asks that all decorate their boats. Commodore Saunders will be out in the Rhona to give directions and line up the parade.

The Malaspina being a naval ship will not salute the flag, but instead her crew will line up at attention as they pass the saluting point. The Malaspina will not be dressed for the occasion, as this, too, is contrary to naval rules.
