

Got a Cold?

Peps will give you relief. Simply dissolve a Peps tablet in your mouth. Your breath carries the medicinal Pine vapor, which is released, to all parts of the throat, nasal and air passages, where a liquid medicine could not possibly reach. This vapor destroys all germs with which it comes in contact, soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and fortifies you against coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis and grippe. Peps contain absolutely no harmful drugs and are therefore the safest remedy for children.

BALL PLAYER GOES TO CRICKET MATCH

Sammy Gets Worked Up Over the Serious Way English People Take Their Sport.

Among the columns in the sporting pages filled with the Englishman's version of baseball and the Canadian and Sammie's impression of cricket, few have been more amusing than the following article by Thomas Burke in The London Daily Mail:

"Say, old pal, I have been getting a line on this cricket game of yours, and I'd like to spiel to you.

"Well, well, well, well. Say, the evening service at our National Baptist chapel way back in Wallopville is surely one big riot to it. You Brits have got mighty fresh about our ball game, but it is a game, ain't it? But your cricket, ' ' ' Seems like the Chinese invented the game; 'cos I never see anything so solid-like, 'cept a Chink starchery on Pell Street in full blast.

Like Court Martial.

"First the fielding team comes out. They walk to their places in the field like it was a court-martial, and then two Chinese idols in flannel pants marches out, carrying what looks like little cars. They goes through some ritual, and then the pitcher at one end trundles the ball to the bat at the other end. Maybe the bat hits it. Maybe he don't. If he do, one of the fielders takes a languid trot towards it, picks it up gently, and hands it to the pitcher. If he hits it very hard, and it don't happen to go anywhere near a fielder, he and the chap at the other end change places. A 'run,' they call it. Run! Ever see a religious procession round a cathedral? Then when he's put out. Does he trot back to the Chinese pavilion? No sir. If he did, he'd get put off the field for being frivolous. He crawls back, and the next man crawls out, and the game's delayed a minute or so, and everybody has a much-needed rest.

Disturbs Players.

"And, oh, boy, the peacefulness of it all. Nobody lifts his voice. Nobody enjoys the game. You might think they was all prisoners of war doing chores for Fritz. The crowd's just the same. No talk. No rooting. No noise. Once when a man hit a fly, and the chap at short stop muffed it, I jumped up and shouts: 'Attaboy! Zaa. Ssss. Boom. Zaa.' But the chap I was with pulls me down, and says 'Sh.' 'What's biting you?' I says. 'You can't do that here,' he says, 'it disturbs the players.' 'Say, I says, 'what do your folks come to a game for, anyway?' 'We come to see serious cricket,' he says. 'My God,' I says, 'serious is the word. When the sermon?' 'He nudged me again, like I was misbehaving myself, so I pipes down and watches their 'fast' bowler. Oh, Lordy, Lordy. When I see him putting over his 'fast' ones, and then thinks of Grover Alexander. . . Oh, boy!

Kill the Umpire.

"Next I remember was my escort shaking me, and I hikes up and rubs my eyes. 'What, is the service over?' I says. 'Yes,' he says, 'and we won by twenty-four.' And he looked so solemn about it, I felt kinder sorry. 'Never mind,' I says, 'perhaps next time you'll get licked, and then I'll help you kill the umpire.' 'Oh we never have disgraceful scenes like that,' he says. 'Not in real cricket,' he says. 'Ain't there no other kind of cricket?' I says, 'where a chap can enjoy himself and get worked up, and go Sss, Boom, Bah.' 'Well, he looks at me then so grieved and severe, like, that I turned and lined out. 'Where you going?' he says.

"I says: 'By way of a change I'm going to the Eagle Hut to play a hair-tearing hot-a-pot, hell-fire game of ludo.'

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

COW BAY LAUNCH HARBOR
(Protection Work.)

SEALED TENDERS, superscribed "Tender for Cow Bay Launch Harbor Protection Work" will be received by the Honorable the Minister of Public Works up to 12 o'clock Tuesday, the 10th day of December, 1918, for the building and completing of dolphins and floats at Cow Bay, Prince Rupert Harbor, in the Prince Rupert Electoral District.

Plans, specifications, contract and forms of tender may be seen on and after the 25th day of November, 1918, at the office of A. L. Garthurs, District Engineer, Prince Rupert, B. C., office of District Engineer, Court House, Vancouver, B. C., and Department of Public Works, Victoria, B. C.

By application to the undersigned, contractors may obtain a copy of the plans and specifications for the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) or a marked cheque, which will be refunded on their return in good order.

Each proposal must be accompanied by an accepted bank cheque on a chartered bank of Canada, made payable to the Honorable the Minister of Public Works, for a sum equal to 20% (per cent.) of tender, which shall be forfeited if the party tendering declines to enter into contract when called upon to do so, or if he fails to complete the work contracted for. The cheque of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them upon the execution of the contract. Tenders will not be considered unless made out on the forms supplied, signed with the actual signature of the tenderer, and enclosed in the envelopes furnished. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

NAVIGABLE WATERS PROTECTION ACT.

R. S. C. CHAPTER 115.

The Port Edward Fisheries Limited hereby gives notice that they have, under Section 7 of the said Act, deposited with the Minister of Public Works at Ottawa and in the office of the District Registrar of the Land Registry, District of Prince Rupert, at Prince Rupert, B. C., a description of the site of the proposed site of a cannery and wharf proposed to be built situate on portion of Porpoise Harbor at Port Edward, B. C., in front of part of Lot 4476, Range 5, Coast District.

And take notice that after the expiration of one month from the date of the first publication of this notice, the Port Edward Fisheries Limited will, under Section 7 of the said Act, apply to the Minister of Public Works at his office in the City of Ottawa, for approval of the said site and plans and for leave to construct the said cannery and wharf.

Dated at Vancouver, B. C., this twenty-fourth day of October, 1918.
PORT EDWARD FISHERIES LIMITED,
NOV. 29. R. E. WALKER, SECRETARY.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENT

Records now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.

Parties will be permitted to apply for adjacent pre-emption, with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.

Where a pre-emptor in occupation not less than one year has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health or other cause, be granted an intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $300 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained on these claims in less than 5 years, with improvements of $10 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years.

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing and industrial purposes, areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.

PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as at present, to one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

TOWNSITE PROPERTY ALLOTMENT ACT.

Provision is made for the grant to persons holding uncompleted Agreements to Purchase from the Government such proportion of the land, if divisible, as the payments already made will cover in proportion to the sale price of the whole parcel. Two or more persons holding such Agreements may group their interests and apply for a proportionate allotment jointly, if it is not considered advisable to divide the land covered by an application for a proportionate allotment, an allotment of land of equal value selected from available Crown lands in the locality may be made. These allotments are conditional upon payment of all taxes due the Crown or to any municipality.

Rights of persons to whom the purchase money has been paid, and who are also protected. The decision of the Minister of Lands in respect to the adjustment of a proportionate allotment is final. The time for making application for these allotments is limited to the 1st day of May, 1919. Any application made after that date will not be considered. These allotments apply to town lots and lands of the Crown sold at public auction.

For information apply to any Provincial Government Agent or to the undersigned.

MODES of the MOMENT

STENCILLING MAKES THIS BLOUSE EFFECTIVE

This modern form of our dress has a definite mission, and the only persons who ignore or attempt to controvert this fact are those to whom any such knowledge, either gained by study or grasped by intuition, is a dead letter. It is quite possible, however, for this mission, like all missions, as every student of psychology knows, to be abused, and not infrequently it is the most potent when exercised semi-consciously.

But wherever and whenever its power may be wielded, it is foolish and futile to attempt to deny or decry it. Rare as the dodo is the woman who has not realized a feeling of self-reliance and even an innate sense of leadership from the consciousness of being well dressed, and reverse is equally true.

Any nation takes on the attributes of its people, and what is true of its individuals is true of the land of which they are a part—even where dress is concerned. When we consider the morale of America and remember the days and nights on which we attired ourselves as suited our comeliness and our dignity when it would have been so easy to have slipped into cheerless drab clothes because we felt depressed, we must admit to ourselves the veracity of this fact.

Simplicity still reigns supreme, but not a dowdy, monotonous simplicity, even when strict economy must be observed. Clothes are distinguished by care in detail and skill in cut, and altogether far beyond those of former years.

Little things are depended upon to create the effect and they nobly rise to the occasion. On the smock of stone blue crêpe de Chine, for instance, an odd touch is created by stencilling in black and in shades of yellow. Severely plain are the lines, with a slight shirring at the hips. Beads of amber fasten the neck and sleeves. Upon the blouse of navy blue Georgette white beads and red chenille braid combine in a striking manner. A vestee and cuffs of satin in the same shade develop a dainty and serviceable finish. Upon the black velvet turban silver embroidery in a pretty design gives the "something different" air that inevitably makes its appeal to the feminine heart.
