SUPERINTENDENT OF UTILITIES REFUSED INCREASE OF SALARY

A recommendation from the Utilities Committee that T. C. Duncan, superintendent of utilities, be granted an increase in salary of $15 a month was refused by the City Council last night on a vote of four to three, Aldermen Dybhavn, McRae and McMeekin voting for the increase and Aldermen Casey, Barrie, Rochester and Kirkpatrick opposing.

Immediately on the proposal being made by the chairman of the committee, Alderman Casey was on his feet to protest. He did not think that the superintendent had given such service as to warrant special consideration. Not only did he object to the increase but to the superintendent holding the position.

Alderman Rochester opposed the increase on general principles. He did not consider the cost of living had gone up to such an extent as to warrant two advances in one year. Already he had been advanced $25 and now he came back with a request for another $15 which would make his salary $240 a month.

The vote was then taken.

DAUGHTER OF DESTINY HAS HEART THROBS

That some women seem fated to get into the wierdest sort of matrimonial mazes is demonstrated in "Daughter of Destiny" which is the title of Madame Petrova's first photoplay from her own studios. The feminine pawn in the fate game played on the diplomatic chess board which forms the background of the story is a perfectly good and almost too beautiful to be true American girl by the name of Marion Ashley. Marion has no mother, but her father's affection for her does everything but steer her clear of the troubles any modern mother could see without half trying.

Being beautiful, artistically inclined and wholly unsuspecting as most nice girls are, Marion first accompanies a famous Austrian artist to the altar, this being before Austrians were being dropped from the visiting lists of our best people. True to form, this foreigner has taken her for ulterior motives, to wit—to gain possession of certain diplomatic secrets her Ambassador father is supposed to possess. Besides being a spy hubby number one is a Lothario and a disciple of Baccus. In his cups he kills a man, slips his ring on his victims finger, sets fire to the premises and disappears. The ring is found on the unrecognizable remains' finger and Marion thinks herself free.

Later, another lover, in appearance and fact a prince, claims Marion for his own, but because of State reasons contracts a side-door marriage with her. Morganic they call such affairs—Mormonic would come nearer the truth. So poor Marion has two husbands on; none; dependent on the point of view.

A decidedly interesting situation that leads to highly sensational developments which, presented by Madame Petrova and her splendid company, makes a fitting climax in a story filled with heart throbs.

If Cooks Could See the Factory

We would like to plan a great excursion to the plant, so every person who cooks could see the care the milk gets.

We would also like to show how carefully the milk is tested for richness and quality.

They could see the clean, sunlit buildings and scrubbed floors that would make a Holland housewife envious.

It is these things that give PACIFIC MILK its wholesome goodness.

Your Dainty Things

can be washed over and over again with Lux and still retain the delightful charm of freshness and newness. Very desirable, this, in war time! Lux is so gentle in its cleansing power that it cannot harm the most delicate fabric.

How to wash a silk garment

Use a tablespoonful of Lux to a gallon of water. Dissolve in boiling or very hot water and whisk into a thick, creamy lather. Add cold water until luke warm. Dip your garment through the Lux suds many times. Work it about, gently squeezing the suds through the soiled parts but do not rub! Rinse in three waters—clear and also luke warm. Press the water out—but do not wring. Dry in the shade and when nearly dry press on the wrong side with a warm iron—never a hot one. Press crepes from side to side and stretch a very little as you press. They will look just like new!
