MRS. REYNOLDS DIES IN HOSPITAL HERE

The death occurred in the General Hospital this morning of Mrs. Beatrice L. Reynolds, wife of Thos. Reynolds of Lewis Island.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds are old timers here, and formerly lived near Seal Cove for many years. They left Prince Rupert for Porcher Island, and latterly have been located on Lewis Island, about twenty miles south of here.

Mrs. Reynolds had been south visiting relatives and was thoroughly well when leaving Vancouver, but on arriving at Swanson Bay she was so ill with influenza that a special nurse had to be got for her. When she arrived here on the Venture last Friday she, with her two children, were at once taken to the General Hospital, where pneumonia developed, to which Mrs. Reynolds succumbed. The children, one of 7 and the younger 14 weeks, have recovered and are doing well.

The funeral will be held tomorrow from the chapel of the B. C. Undertakers.

The regular meeting of the Sons of Canada will be held in their hall Friday evening, the 6th inst. A full attendance is desired. 284

The postponed Thanksgiving Supper will be held in the Methodist Church on Wednesday, Dec. 11th, from 6 to 8—Also sale of Work. 83-86-87.

Christmas Cards are fine reminders, always appreciated and cheap, at McRae Bros. 283

CHINAMAN FINED FOR HAVING OPIUM

Last evening Chief Vickers, Constables Adams and McGlinchey, although not members, paid a visit to the Chinese Club, at 911 Third Avenue. Several Chinese were found on the premises, and from their appearance the Chief judged that there was opium among the party, and that they had been using it, as some of them looked "dopey." There was also music, which sounds weird to Occidental ears. Six or seven instruments were going full blast. There was the samisen, in infinite variety of shapes, drums and the clashing cymbals. The wailing sounds, however, did not deter the constables from their search, and they were rewarded by finding a small quantity of opium in another room. They could not find the pipe, though.

This morning Wong Luck appeared before the magistrate and was fined $25 for being in possession of the drug. The charge against Chin Dick was adjourned until tomorrow.

JACK PICKFORD AND LOUISE HUFF HERE

"The Varmint" is the play that is at the Westholme tonight with a double star caste. Louise Huff is well known in the movie world and local picture fans are very familiar with Jack Pickford plays. The team should have something better than usual to offer.

"Whose Baby?" is a funny thing, a joker comedy that is most amusing; in fact it tends to make an audience uproarious. In addition to this is a gazette of current events which is light up to the minute as far as transportation facilities here allows.
