The serial film story "The Mystery of the Double Cross" is to be continued at the Empress tonight. Those who have not seen the first part will be able to get a resume before the play begins so that they will enjoy the show just as well as if they had been there last week.

Marie Osborne in "Shadows and Sunshine" will be well worth a visit to this popular house. The actress is well known and the play is an excellent one. In addition to those two features the gazette of current happenings rounds out a program such as is seldom seen at the movies.

MARGUERITE CLARK AT THE WESTHOLME

Sweetest Girl in Motion Pictures Appears Tonight in "Rich Man, Poor Man."

Known to her thousands of admirers as "the sweetest girl in motion pictures," Marguerite Clark has a nation-wide following. In her latest Paramount picture, "Rich Man, Poor Man," based upon the novel by Maximilian Foster, and directed by J. Searle Dawley, she has a captivating role that will prove a powerful magnet to the motion picture theatregoers of Prince Rupert at the Westholme tonight.

In this excellent photoplay, which was adapted for the screen by George Broadhurst, the playwright, Miss Clark will be seen as an orphan girl in a boarding house who, innocent of the falsity of her position, is accepted as the grandchild of a Well Street financier, as the result of the forgery of a man who desires to make her happy. She brings sunshine into the life of the crabbed old millionaire who, even when he discovers the imposture practiced upon him, refuses to allow her to leave his fireside.

It chances that Betty loves a young man who is in fact, the grandson of the capitalist, so that all ends happily after all.
