New Revelation
 Excites Interest.

So many people were interested in the article which appeared in The News some little time ago on "The New Revelation," Conan Doyle's new book, and so many have thought the quotations therein were incomplete that in direct answer to a direct query as to what the writer meant when he said "Christianity must change or perish" we quote the following further:

"People are alienated (from Christianity) because they frankly do not believe the facts as presented to them to be true. Their reason and their sense of justice are equally offended. One can see no justice in a vicarious sacrifice, nor in the God who could be placated by such means. Above all, many cannot understand such expressions as 'the redemption from sin,' 'cleansed by the blood of the Lamb' and so forth. So long as there was any question of the fall of man there was at least some sort of explanation of such phrases, but when it became certain that man had never fallen—when with ever fuller knowledge we could trace our ancestral course down through the cave man and the drift man back to that shadowy and far off time when the man-like ape slowly evolved into the ape-like man—looking back on all this vast succession of life, we knew that it had always been rising from step to step. Never was there any evidence of a fall.

Quite Divorced
 From the Facts.

"But if there were no fall then what became of the atonement, of original sin, of a large part of Christian mystical philosophy? Even if it were as reasonable in itself as it is actually unreasonable, it would still be quite divorced from the facts.

"Again too much seemed to be made of Christ's death. It is no uncommon thing to die for an idea. Every religion has equally had its martyrs. Men die continually for their convictions. Thousands of our lads are doing it at this instant in France. Therefore the death of Christ, beautiful as it is in the Gospel narrative, has seemed to assume an undue importance, as though it were an isolated phenomenon for a man to die in pursuit of a reform.

Too Much Stress Laid on Death.

"In my opinion far too much stress has been laid upon Christ's death, and far too little upon his life. That was where the true grandeur and the true lesson lay. It was a life which in those limited records shows us no trait which is not beautiful—a life full of easy tolerance for others, of kindly charity, of broad-minded moderation, of gentle courage, always progressive and open to new ideas, and yet never bitter to those ideas which he was really supplanting, though he did occasionally lose his temper with their more bigoted and narrow supporters. Especially one loves his readiness to get at the spirit of religion, sweeping aside the texts and the forms. Never had anyone such a robust common sense or such a sympathy for weakness. It was this most wonderful and uncommon life, and not his death, which is the true centre of the Christian religion."

GET 100%
 FOR YOUR MONEY.

If you paid $1 for a can of milk and proved it to be three-quarters water, would you be satisfied?

If you paid the price for a silk sweater coat and found it nine-tenths cotton, wouldn't you complain?

The makers of Zam-Buk believe you should buy your medicine as critically and carefully as you buy food and clothing. When you buy Zam-Buk you get a remedy that is 100% medicine—not a small proportion medicine and the balance animal fat! See the advantage?

Again, animal fats won't keep for very long; yet how often do you need to use a whole box of ointment right away? Zam-Buk's absolute freedom from animal fat prevents its turning rancid. It will keep for months and yet retain all its medicinal powers.

These are but two of the many reasons why Zam-Buk is the most widely used balm. It has been proved best for all sores, eczema, bad legs, ulcers, abscesses, scalp sores, boils, pimples, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds, cuts, stiff neck and rheumatism. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Send this advertisement and 1c. stamp (for return postage) and FREE TRIAL BOX will be sent you.
