DAILY EDITION. Thursday, Jan. 23, 1919.

Prince Rupert's Rainfall Not Big.

The rainfall of Prince Rupert last year was only 86 inches. That is official and should silence those who try to make out that it rains all the time here. The rainfall in Vancouver is not quite as much as that but it is very heavy. In Vancouver they have more fog and dull weather than we have here. In Victoria there is scarcely thirty inches of rain and in the summer months the place is often parched and the people wishing for a shower. It is impossible to get everything. The climate here compares very favorably with the forty degrees below zero that occurs so often in the winters on the prairies.

Shipbuilders On Way Here.

The shipbuilding magnates are on their way to Prince Rupert. They are expected to arrive before the end of next week and to at once lay out the work for preparing the shipbuilding slips and other work in connection with the laying down of the million dollar plant for the shipbuilding operations here. That is what we have been looking for. It will now be for everyone to work together, not to get all the temporary gain possible but to build up the city and make it a good place in which to live.

Dominions Are Independent Nations.

The Dominion of Canada is independent insofar as making her own laws is concerned, and in everything except in regard to treaty making with other nations, and even in that her wishes are always regarded. She is just as much a nation as Denmark or Belgium or Switzerland and perhaps a good deal more so than either. The proposal that she should have representation in a league of nations seems reasonable. The fact that we entertain and pay a salary to a prominent person from Great Britain to act as our social mentor should not debar us from our just rights when it comes to settling the political future of the world.

Great Preparations For Fishing Here.

There are great preparations going forward for the opening of the fishing season. All along the waterfront there is the sound of hammer and saw as the launches are being licked into shape for the real work of the year. A number of people from the prairies have been looking for boats with the idea of engaging in the industry and all those who were fishing last year will be out again. There will be no idle boats.

Some of the fishermen have put in new engines in order to increase their speed and thus increase the catch. Others have bought larger boats and in some cases will operate more than one. Everything tends to the belief that the season will be the biggest that has yet been reached at this port.

Tariff Question Still a Live One.

That some of the Canadian manufacturers are not satisfied with the limited Canadian market but are anxious to invade the United States is a new phase to the tariff question, which has not previously been a factor. Manufacturers here have outgrown their swaddling clothes and are anxious for a chance to compete in the markets of the world and especially in the nearest markets, which are those directly to the south. The question is asked why the manufacturers of Windsor, Ontario, should have to find a market two thousand miles away when there is one within a few miles if only the unnatural barrier were removed. As a matter of fact Canadians are getting a world vision far beyond the petty provincialism of former days.

ROYAL YEAST CAKES

The quality of Royal Yeast Cakes is such that it cannot be improved, so we are improving the package. The change from a round to a square package will be made as rapidly as practical. The quality of the round and square cakes is guaranteed to be identical in every respect. Each of the square cakes are wrapped separately by machinery, in wax paper, in such a manner as to make them practically airtight, and scientifically hygienic.

ROYAL YEAST HAS BEEN THE STANDARD YEAST OF CANADA FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY

Worn Out

Parents love to watch the children grow and do not mind discarding the little garments which have been outgrown; but no one likes to see garments spoiled by shrinkage in the wash before they are worn out. This is easily avoided by using Lux, because Lux prevents shrinkage.

The Lux flakes are whisked into the richest, creamiest lather you have ever seen—in which everything that pure water may touch is washed, pleasantly and quickly, by dipping up and down, squeezing and rinsing—but never rubbing.

Discriminating mothers use Lux for woollens—it keeps them soft and fleecy and long lasting. Always use it for sweaters, blankets, etc., as well as for dainty silks, lawns, muslins
