Mr. Baldwin gave only a general in "Representatives of the United Kingdom," the Lord President of the British Council declared, "have entered this conference with the intention of making their full contribution to a still further extension of Empire trade. They have put frankly and fully to the Dominions articles upon which they desire to secure further advantages in the Dominion markets and they will welcome from the Dominions equally full statements of corresponding advantages they seek in the market of Great Britain."

Following are some points from Mr. Baldwin's statement:

The proportion of imports from the Dominions which still enjoys free entry into Great Britain in some cases exceeds ninety percent. Since Great Britain changed her fiscal policy only thirty percent of her imports from foreign countries enjoy free trade.

In the case of imports from the practically no free entry, that is to * say a duty or tax of some kind is charged on almost all goods imported into those Dominions.

The visible trade balance in famarriage to Dr. Allistone McKin- day's session of the Imperial vor of the Dominions is nearly £100,000,000 sterling.

During the year 1930 imports into the Dominions from foreign countries amounted to nearly £350,000,

The British delegation urges that preferential rates of duty charges should be so graduated as to give the products of the United Kingom a reasonable chance of competing on even terms and that the purposes no higher than is necessary to give reasonably efficient industry in the Dominions a fair chance.

Is Shot Dead and Another Injured in Washington Riot cotninued its advance in price and * ufactured goods.

WASHINGTON, July 28:-One unidentified veteran was shot dead and another was seriously wounded in rioting between veterans' bonus seekers and police near the Capitol today and troops were ordered out at the direction of President Herbert Hoover to quell the disturbance. From Fort Myers, Virginia, squadrons of cavalry rushed into the city and headed for the White House.

Down near the Capitol meanwhile police strove to keep order among the veterans who were in an ugly mood after having been fired upon by the officers.

The shooting and rioting occurred on Pennsylvania Avenue, two blocks from the Capitol, where the veterans have been encamped. A group of the veterans resorted to violence after being evicted from a building they had been occupying. They chased the police for some distance by throwing bricks at the officers.

It is expected that the authorities will at once clear the city of the bonus seekers many of whom have been here for weeks.
