Replying to a question regarding the shipbuilding at this port, A. E. Rosevear stated that Mr. Hinton was at present in Ottawa on that business. They were not authorized to make any statement.

Commissioner Sowton will give a lecture on the "Lessons to be learned from the Great War" in the Salvation Army Citadel on Saturday, February 22, at 8 p. m. On Sunday, at 8 p. m. he will conduct the service. Everybody welcome. 45

"Scoop" Millar who is in the employ of C. H. Thomas & Co., met with an unfortunate accident yesterday afternoon while driving the car. He was on his way to Seal Cove and when nearing there his automobile took a swerve and went over the bank on the side of the road, falling about 35 feet. He is suffering from a cut and bruised face. No bones were broken.

As the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, who have just organized here, have not yet a Ladies' Auxiliary, the ladies of the Adair Carss Chapter I. O. D. E., have kindly volunteered their services, in assisting with their forthcoming dance. The dance takes place on Wednesday the 26th, and arrangements are well under way now. The assembly will be sounded by the bugles of the Cadets, which will give a military flavor to the opening proceedings.

MASQUERADE DANCE AT SEAL COVE SCHOOL

Daily News Represented in Costume by Mrs. Wm. Keith; Enjoyable Event.

A very gay sight was presented at the School House at Seal Cove last evening on the occasion of the Red Cross masquerade dance. There was a large number of dancers present, and the costumes were very good. The judges of the dresses had a hard time, and they awarded the first prize for the ladies to Miss LaChance as a Spanish dancer. The second prize went to Mrs. Wm. Keith, who appeared very much up to date, representing the Daily News in a most novel costume. Mr. Baker and Mr. Wm. Joy respectively won the first and second gentlemen's prizes.

The judges for the ladies were Messrs. Slaggard and Johns. Mr. Slaggard made a most acceptable M. C., while music was supplied by Mr. and Mrs. Walker and Mr. Crate.

During the evening there were three raffles, a box of cigars from Captain Hills, won by Geo. Crate; sugar from Mrs. E. B. Webster, won by Mr. Miller, and a cake from Mrs. J. S. Mathieson won by Mrs. T. H. Johnson.
