years ago an ulcer appeared on my ankle," writes Mrs. Jeffrey, of Methuen, Mass. "In spite of all the remedies I used, it spread to my knee, and developed into an open sore. I had medical treatment for twenty-five years, but only got temporary relief. The pain I suffered was terrible, and for years I was unable to leave the house."

"One day I saw in a newspaper an account of a bad ulcer having been cured by Zam-Buk. Although I was skeptical, now, of anything curing me—having tried so many remedies in vain—I decided to give Zam-Buk a trial. I applied the balm freely every day and to my delight the sore soon showed some improvement. Gradually the inflammation was drawn out, the pain was ended, and, after thirty years of suffering, I realized I was on the road to recovery. With perseverance, the awful sore was finally completely healed, and, although that was three years ago, there has not been the slightest trace of the ulcer returning."

Zam-Buk is the best remedy, also, for eczema, boils, pimples, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts. All dealers, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

THE NEW NO MAN'S LAND

CARMEL MYERS STARS IN "THE CITY OF TEARS"

Play Shows How a Girl Who is Down and Out is Saved.

Have you rested long in Union Square? Have you shared one of the grey-green benches with the flotsam and jetsam of adversity? Carmel Myers, the beautiful star of "The City of Tears," an unusual Bluebird photoplay, finds herself a derelict in New York when the opera company in which she sang, closes down. Hungry and friendless she seeks Union Square as a resting place.

How she saves herself from the crimson alternative at the turning of the ways and how she helps others along the highroad of a humdrum life is vividly depicted in "The City of Tears."

Carmel Myers, winning greater laurels in each picture, may be seen tonight at the Empress.

William McRae, an employee of the Family Shoe Store, left this morning on the Chelohsin in answer to a telegram received yesterday stating that his son Allison is ill at Vancouver and in a very critical condition, following a severe attack of influenza.

PATTULLO IS URGING ACTION

Asks Federal Members to Prodd Dominion Government With View to Lumber Revival.

A strong plea for intervention by British Columbia Federal members in connection with much needed lumber orders for this province is made by the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, in the following wire dispatch at the week end.

"Our London representative advised us some time ago that only the securing of necessary tonnage was holding up a very large order for lumber for the mills of this province. We took up the matter with the Marine Department, Ottawa, urging action on their part. Also we have sent wires and cables relative to available tonnage offering here. It is absolutely essential to secure this order as the lumber market will have to shut down.

"The milling interests in this Province and our own Department carried out complete reorganization to supply aeroplane spruce to the British Government. With the sudden shutdown on signing of armistice it is necessary to again look for new field of activity. Am sending two or three similar telegrams to this to other British Columbia members, and would ask you to call British Columbia members together who will request the Ottawa Government to make the most strenuous efforts to furnish the British authorities with all tonnage that can possibly be secured on this side, and to insist that orders shall come to British Columbia.

"American brokers fighting for the business. In view of the fact that no fault is found with prices quoted, and in view of all other circumstances we look to you to see that Ottawa insists with British authorities that orders shall not be placed across the line in preference to Canada."

VIVIAN MARTIN PLAYS "MIRANDY SMILES"

Whimsical Characterization in Excellent Story at Westholme Theatre Tonight.

The admirers of Vivian Martin, the charming Paramount star, who recently was seen here in "Her Country First," have another treat in store for them when her latest photoplay, "Mirandy Smiles" will be presented at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

In this photoplay Miss Martin is seen as a scrub lady employed in an Opera House in a middle western town, and her whimsical characterization, coupled with the charm of a mist excellent story, make this picture one of the best in which Miss Martin has been seen in many a day. Miss Martin is brilliantly supported, while the photography is unusually fine.
