War Trophies Exhibit on Coast.

On Saturday the Dominion Government Great War Trophies Exhibit will be shown in Vancouver for the last time and next week will be taken to Victoria. From that city the exhibit will be sent to Ottawa, where certain trophies will be retained for the federal archives, while the remainder will be distributed to all parts of the Dominion. In this distribution it will be the aim of the Government, it is understood, to send trophies to those districts in which regiments were recruited that won them on the field of battle. It has been suggested that Prince Rupert should at once put in a claim for a share of the trophies.

War Over But Money is Needed.

Campbell Sweeny, Provincial Chairman of the British Columbia Division, National War Savings Committee, recently said: "The war is over, and it might be thought patriotic effort in the way of saving and lending to the Government is no longer necessary, but this is not the case for the following reasons: While actual fighting has stopped, an army of occupation will have to be kept in the enemy country for some time, and Canada must furnish its quota of the army. The payment and provision for our army during the course of demobilization has also to be provided for, and, above all, money must be found to properly pension our soldiers, and provide for the dependents of those who have made the great sacrifice for our protection and for the preservation of the freedom of the world."

Canada Must Now Finance Herself.

"Further, much money will be required for the development of our natural resources, by which means alone can we pay off the heavy national debt the war has imposed upon us, and for all these purposes we must finance ourselves, for the rest of the world wants what money it has for its own uses. The success of the Victory Loans has proved conclusively that Canada can finance herself if she determines to do so, and what is asked of her now is to supplement the magnificent bursts of patriotism which have produced over $1,000,000,000 in two years by persistent economy and so steadily keep the country's coffers filled, and the country's soldiers fed, and the country's industries flourishing."

Oliver's Name is Mentioned at Ottawa.

Says the Vancouver Sun: "The despatch from Ottawa stating that the name of Hon. John Oliver is being canvassed for the party leadership will not be surprising news to the friends of the veteran premier of this province, though it appears to have been unthought of by Mr. Oliver himself, which, of course, is what might be expected from a man of Mr. Oliver's modesty. "It must be admitted that for the national leadership Mr. Oliver possesses many qualifications of both a positive and negative character."

"He is sturdily devoted to the broad principles of Liberalism and his long public record in this province will furnish all the proof of that statement which may be called for. His sterling sense of duty and the singleness of purpose with which he pursues his course, inspire the confidence of his followers. "On the negative side, he has no past party sins to answer for. He has not been identified with any of the dissensions which have shaken the party in the east. He has been too far on the outside to be saddled with the onus of any mistakes which have been made."

"The Liberal party of Canada might do worse than to select the war horse of Delta for their national leader."

Work to Do in British Columbia.

John Oliver is needed just now in British Columbia worse than at Ottawa. He is the strong man of British Columbia and is well known and appreciated here. There are plenty of men who can be chosen to lead the Federal party, but few who could carry the provincial Government over the shoals which have beset its course since its inception. A good many people would like to see Mr. Oliver change the sphere of his activities, but we feel sure that the Premier is listening to no siren voices just now.

IS YOUR SKIN BROKEN OUT?

Are you troubled with blotches, pimples or blackheads? Mr. O. M. Smith, of 630 21st St., Edmonton, says: "For skin troubles there is nothing so equal as Zam-Buk. My skin was so blotchy I was ashamed of it, and although I tried every remedy I could think of, it got no better until I used Zam-Buk. This herbal balm has worked wonders—my skin is now perfectly clear and smooth." Such ailments, although apparently on the surface skin, really arise in the underlying tissues, and Zam-Buk's success in such cases is due to its wonderful power of penetration, which enables it to reach the root of the trouble. The stimulative quality in Zam-Buk rouses the sluggish cells to healthy action. This promotes a vigorous circulation which carries off all impurities and a smooth, clear skin is the result. Zam-Buk is equally good for eczema, ulcers, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, cuts, chapped hands and chilblains. All dealers, at 50c. a box.

What the Spring Hill Farm Owners Say of . . . . . DECORTICATED Cottonseed Meal February 8, 1919. Vancouver Milling & Grain Co., Ltd., Vancouver, B. C. Dear Sirs: We consider Cottonseed Meal the finest milk and butter fat producer on the market. We have used it extensively in all our testing. Our records are as follows: 440 lbs., 497 lbs., 563 lbs., 846 1/2 lbs., 923 1/2 lbs. butter, this last one being with a milk production of 14,811 lbs., making we believe, the highest Jersey Cow record in Canada for 1918. The stock comes through the winter in fine shape when fed Cottonseed Meal with other rations. We also feed it alone through Spring and Summer as it stops the great looseness of the bowels attendant upon the consumption of Spring grass. (Signed.)
