MUCH MONEY RAISED FOR SMITHERS CHURCH

Double Event by Ladies of St. James Proves Very Successful.

Thursday last was field day for the Women's Aid of St. James' Church, Smithers, and the success which attended the efforts of that society constituted a total eclipse of all similar undertakings within recent years, says the Interior News. Despite a bitterly cold day, the townspeople turned out in such force as to make every phase of varied plans an avenue of successful cash-raising for the benefit of the church.

The afternoon was devoted to a tea held in the church, and it was here the ladies got in their best work, that went so far toward stacking up the splendid pile of $232.05. In two prettily decorated booths the ladies vended tempting home cooking and a great variety of beautiful articles of adornment and utility, which, with the tea, realized the sum of $161.50.

In the evening a concert was given in the Kennedy, hall, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the crowd which took up the seating capacity. From this source and its condiments an additional $70.50 was realized, which will make it possible for the treasurer to negotiate the bank side of Main street with impunity and becoming dignity.

AT KETCHIKAN

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Gardner Arrive Home After Being Married in California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Gardner were arrivals on the Princess Mary this morning from Venice, California, where they were married on Christmas Day, says a recent issue of the Progressive Miner of Ketchikan.

Mr. Gardner, who is in the forestry service here, has made his home in Ketchikan for many years and is well known all over the territory, while his charming bride, who was the widow of the late Mike Wadding, superintendent of the Loring Cannery for many years, is equally well known and liked.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gardner are popular with the social set in Ketchikan and the First City will surely extend its welcome and congratulations to this happy couple. They will be at home in the Forestry bungalow on Newtown Hill shortly.

SMITHERS

Bud Fisher has returned and has taken his old position in the G. T. P. offices.

Pte. Clifford Warner reached Smithers last week from his home in Barrie, Ontario, where he spent a month after 27 months in France. He will now be on the staff of the Interior News.

L. H. Hoskins who was staying at Smithers has returned to Craven, Sask., in order to meet his son who is on his way home from overseas.

"Dad" Corley is out and around again after spending three weeks in the General Hospital, where he had an operation performed for rupture. Although Dad looks well enough to be out again, he also liked the Hospital fine, and is loud in his praise of both doctors and nurses, as well as the orderlies.

Several of the skaters who were over at the Salt Lakes last night took an impromptu cold bath before returning. One of them fell through the soft ice where the tide was coming in, carrying his partner with him, and no sooner were they out than three more did a similar stunt. By the aid of a roaring camp fire they dried their clothes and returned none the worse for the adventure.

See what happened to the scandal-mongers in "A Perfect Lady" Madge Kennedy's latest Goldwyn picture at the Westholme tonight.

the "sweetest" story that ever was told

It came from home to "her man" in the trench. It started visions; smacking of lips—almost a stampede for home. It was a wonderful letter; painting word-pictures of the cakes, tarts and pies that were all to be the prize of this fighting man upon his return.

AND WILD ROSE PASTRY FLOUR is going to help you keep your word. It will bake such short and light pastries that you will never want to use bread flour for this again. Milled from soft wheat, it is easier handled and requires at least 25 per cent. less shortening. Can be had in 10-lb. sacks upwards—all grocers.
